OWNERSHIP

WILLIAM O. DEWITT, JR.

William O. DeWitt, Jr., was born and grew up in St. Louis as the son of former baseball executive and team owner, William O. DeWitt, and Margaret H. DeWitt.

DeWitt is a graduate of St. Louis Country Day School and holds a B.A. degree in economics from Yale University in 1963 and an M.B.A. from Harvard Business School in 1965.

DeWitt, who has been involved in baseball since his childhood, has held past interests in the Baltimore Orioles, Cincinnati Reds and Texas Rangers. He has also served as a board member for the Cincinnati Bengals and the Cincinnati Stingers hockey team. His father owned the St. Louis Browns from 1949-51 when Bill, Jr. served as the team's batboy. His uniform, which was worn by midget Eddie Gaedel during his famous pinch-hitting appearance on August 19, 1951, is in the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

DeWitt, 54, is currently president of the investment firm Reynolds, DeWitt & Co. He is also co-chairman of Restaurant Management, Inc. and a board member of Sena Weller Rohs Williams, Inc.

He is a prior member of CEA Corporation (parent of Cincinnati Equitable Insurance Co.), Charter Cable Systems, Inc., the Cincinnati Riverfront Coliseum, Coca-Cola Bottling Investment Group, Inc. (co-Chairman), Future Now Corporation (Publicly traded on NASDAQ), Middle States Coca-Cola Bottling Group, Inc. (Vice-Chairman), Midwest Employers Casualty Company, Mississippi Valley Investment Company (Bank Holding Company), Republic Broadcasting Corporation, and Spectrum 7 Energy Corporation (Vice Chairman).

His numerous civic activities include President, Fund for Independence Schools of Cincinnati (Minority Scholarship Program), Hamilton County Republican Finance Committee, President, William O. and Margaret H. DeWitt Foundation, Semple Foundation Board Member, Yale University Development Board Member and Regional Chairman for the Yale Campaign, Cincinnati Art Museum Board Member, Taft Museum Board Member, Cabinet Member for Cincinnati Fine Arts Fund, United Way of Cincinnati and the Multiple Sclerosis and Salvation Army Board Member.

DeWitt is married to the former Katharine Cramer of St. Louis. They have resided recently in Cincinnati, Ohio where they raised four children who are now grown, namely Katie, Bill, Andrew and Margot. His sister, Donna "Dede" DeWitt Lambert, is also an investor in the team.

FREDERICK O. HANSER

Frederick O. Hanser was introduced as a principal organizer of the new Cardinal ownership group on December 22, 1995. Hanser, a life-long St. Louisan and Cardinals fan, will oversee the daily operations of the team and will serve as the new ownership group's spokesperson with the public.

Hanser, a St. Louis attorney, has been a partner in the St. Louis law firm of Armstrong, Teasdale, Schlafly and Davis since 1978, specializing in banking and corporate and estate taxation. He was a lawyer for the firm of Fordyce and Mayne from 1966-78.

Hanser is the son of Mrs. Olive D. Mullen and the late S. Albert Hanser, M.D. He is the great-grandson of former Cardinals Vice-President and investor, Adolph M. Diez.

Hanser received a B.A. degree in economics from Yale University in 1963 and earned a J.D. degree from the Washington University School of Law in 1966.

His many business and civic activities include Mississippi Valley Bancshares, Inc. Board of Directors, St. Louis Children's Hospital Development Board, St. Louis Country Day Board of Directors and the Easter Seal Society Board of Directors.

Hanser and his wife, Kathy, of 31 years, have two children, a son, Tim - 28, and a daughter, Kara - 26.

ANDREW N. BAUR

Andrew N. Baur was introduced along with Frederick O. Hanser and William O. DeWitt, Jr. as a principal organizer of the Cardinals new ownership group on December 22, 1995. Like both DeWitt and Hanser, Baur is a native St. Louisan and a life-long Cardinals fan.

Baur, 51, is currently Chairman and CEO of Southwest Bank and its holding company, Mississippi Valley Bancshares, Inc. Baur led a group that purchased Southwest Bank in October, 1984.

His past career posts include Chairman and CEO, County Bank of St. Louis, and President and Chief Operating Officer of County Tower Corp., the holding company for County Bank (1978-84). President and Chairman, Commerce Bank of St. Louis (1974-78). Mercantile Trust Co., N.A. which he entered as a commercial banking officer and left as Vice President in charge of the Loan Division (1970-74). First National Bank of Atlanta (1967-70) in which he entered as a management trainee and was elected officer in 1969.

Baur received an A.B. degree from Washington & Lee University in Lexington, Va. in 1966 and he holds an M.B.A. from Georgia State University (1970).

Baur currently serves as Chairman, Board of Directors for the MUNY (Municipal Theater Association), Board of Directors for Rawlings Sporting Goods Co., Board of Trustees at St. Louis University and Board of Directors, Unity Health Network. He is the former chairman of St. Luke's Hospital, the St. Louis Regional Commerce & Growth Association, the Arts & Education Council of Greater St. Louis and KETC.

Baur is the son of Andrew H. Baur and the former Florence Noland. He was born in St. Louis on April 25, 1944 and attended Country Day School and has three children, Andrew, Todd and McKay.

PRESIDENT
MARK C. LAMPING

Mark C. Lamping was named president of the St. Louis Cardinals on September 1, 1994, replacing Stuart F. Meyer, who announced his retirement on August 19.

Lamping, 37, came to the Cardinals with a strong sports background. In February 1994, he was appointed commissioner of the Continental Basketball League after serving as Anheuser-Busch's group director of sports marketing. In that position, he coordinated all sports marketing activities on behalf of the company's beer brands, including sponsorship agreements for the Olympics, the World Cup and all major professional sports, including Major League Baseball, the National Football League, the National Hockey League and the National Basketball Association.

Lamping joined Anheuser-Busch in 1981. He initially worked in the company's corporate planning group before serving as a district sales manager in southern Illinois and central Iowa. He also served as the senior brand manager for LA beer and director of sales operations.

A St. Louis native and graduate of Vianney High School, Lamping holds a bachelor's degree in accounting from Rockhurst College in Kansas City and a master's degree in business from St. Louis University. He lives in St. Louis County with his wife, Cheryl, and their children, Brian, Lauren and Timmy.

VICE PRESIDENT / GENERAL MANAGER
WALT JOCKETTY

Walt Jocketty, who was named the Cardinals' vice president/general manager on October 14, 1994, is entering his 22nd season in professional baseball. Before joining the Cardinals, he had been the Colorado Rockies' assistant general manager/player personnel.

Jocketty, 45, served for 10 seasons as the director of baseball administration for the Oakland A's before joining the Rockies in July 1993. He served the A's for a total of 14 years, beginning in March 1980, when he was hired by Charlie Finley as director of minor league operations and scouting. Jocketty was instrumental in overhauling the team's minor league system, which produced such standouts as Mark McGwire, Jose Canseco and Walt Weiss. Bolstered by their farm system, the A's won division titles in 1988, 1989, 1990 and 1992.

Jocketty, who also had five years of administrative experience with the Iowa Oaks, has an extensive background in baseball's financial matters, including player trades and contract negotiations.

He is a native of Minneapolis, MN, and earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Minnesota in 1974. He and his wife, Sue, have two children, Ashley and Joey.

JERRY WALKER
DIRECTOR OF MAJOR LEAGUE PLAYER PERSONNEL

Jerry Walker, who was named the Cardinals' director of major league player personnel on November 23, 1994, serves as the Cardinals' chief evaluator of major league talent. He also handles special assignment scouting tasks and works closely with Mike Jorgensen, the director of player development, and Marty Maier, the Cardinals' scouting director.

After retiring as a player in 1964, Walker managed for five years in the New York Yankees' farm system before turning his attention to scouting in 1973. He scouted for the Yankees until the middle of the 1981 season, when he was named the club's major league pitching coach. He later served as the Houston Astros' pitching coach from 1983-1986.

Walker returned to the scouting ranks in 1987, joining the Detroit Tigers as a special assignment scout. He was promoted to general manager in September 1991 and was responsible for overseeing all major and minor league operations. In April 1994, he joined the Toronto Blue Jays as a special assignment scout.

A former pitcher, Walker spent eight seasons in the majors with Baltimore (1957-60), Kansas City (1961-62) and Cleveland (1963-64). He was named to the American League All-Star team in 1959 at the age of 20, becoming the youngest player to ever start the mid-summer classic.

Walker, 57, a native of Ada, OK, and his wife, Janis, have two married daughters and four grandchildren.

BEHIND THE SCENES

TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Stan London has been the Cardinals' head physician for the past 27 seasons, since his associate, Dr. I.C. Middleman, passed away in September 1968. The 69-year-old Springfield, IL, native received his M.D. degree from Washington University in 1949.

As a student at Washington University, Dr. London excelled in baseball and is widely regarded as the school's greatest basketball player ever. While studying for his doctorate, Dr. London coached the university's baseball team and served as assistant basketball coach.

He is a fellow for both the American Board of Surgeons and the American College of Surgeons, an assistant professor of surgery at Washington Medical, and a partner in Parkerest Surgical Associates.

Dr. London was the team physician for the St. Louis Hawks during the team's 11 seasons (1956-57 to 1966-67) in the National Basketball Association. He has tended to Cardinal baseball players' medical needs since 1956.

One of the area's top all-time amateur athletes, Dr. London is a member of the Springfield (Ill.) High School Hall of Fame, the Illinois Basketball Hall of Fame and was the first inductee to the Missouri Handball Hall of Fame. He also is a member of the Missouri Sports Medicine Hall of Fame.

Dr. London and his wife, Jackie, have three children and four grandchildren.

GENE GIESELMANN
TRAINER

Gene Gieselmann is in his 26th season as the Cardinals' head trainer. The 49-year-old Gieselmann has been a trainer in the organization since 1968, when he was appointed trainer at Class A St. Petersburg following his graduation from Wichita State University. The next season, he was named assistant trainer at the major league level, and in 1971, was appointed the Cardinals' head trainer.

Gieselmann was named a certified trainer by the National Athletic Association and is licensed by the state of Missouri in athletic training. He runs four clinics in the St. Louis area for the treatment of sports injuries.

During the 1986 off-season, Gieselmann was the trainer for the major league all-star team that toured Japan to play a seven-game series against a team of Japanese all-stars. He then traveled to Sydney, Australia, to serve as trainer for the Survival of the Fittest competition.

Gieselmann was trainer for the 1982, 1987 and 1993 National League All-Star teams and has been the event trainer for Superstars, Superteams and Battle of the Network Stars television programs. He is on the advisory board of the Missouri Humane Society. His hobbies include thoroughbred racing.

Gieselmann and his wife, Roseanna, have one son, Johnathon.

BRAD HENDERSON
ASSISTANT TRAINER

Brad Henderson is entering his ninth season as the Cardinals' assistant trainer. The 34-year-old Henderson joined the Cardinals' training staff in May 1988 and has been a trainer in the organization since 1985.

Henderson, a native of Ballwin, MO, is a 1985 graduate of the University of Missouri. His first trainer's position was with Johnson City of the Appalachian League. He was head trainer at Arkansas (Texas League) before joining the major league club in 1988. Henderson has been a NATA member since 1986 and is licensed by the state of Missouri.

Henderson has worked with the training staffs of the St. Louis football Cardinals and the University of Missouri's football and baseball teams.

Henderson is married to the former Julie Lynn Rounkles. The couple have a son, Blake Andrew, and a daughter, Brooke Marie. Henderson spends the off-season assisting at trainer Gene Gieselmann's sports medicine clinics in the St. Louis area.

C.J. CHERRE
TRAVELING SECRETARY

C.J. Cherre is responsible for handling the Cardinals' travel and road accommodations, including all spring training arrangements at St. Petersburg.

Born in Norfolk, VA, and raised in St. Louis, Cherre is entering his 19th season with the club. He is a 1970 graduate of St. Louis University High School and received a bachelor's of arts degree (cum laude) from St. Louis University in 1974.

Cherre began his Cardinal career in the group sales department, where he worked in 1977 and '78. He was named assistant director of public relations in January 1979 and held the position through 1980. He assumed his current position in January 1981.

Cherre, an ardent Notre Dame supporter, enjoys swimming, country and contemporary music, and fine dining. He has a daughter, Laura (11).

BUDDY BATES
EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Buddy Bates is in his 14th season as the Cardinals' equipment manager. He succeeded Butch Yatkeman, who was with the Redbirds for 59 years until retiring after the 1982 season.

The 43-year-old St. Louis native joined the Cardinals in 1969, his first of three seasons as a bat boy. He was named assistant equipment manager and visiting clubhouse man in 1972, holding the positions until assuming his current role in 1983.

Bates is a graduate of Central St. Louis High School, where he lettered in basketball. He attended Florissant Valley Community College and the University of Missouri-St. Louis. In his spare time, Buddy is a big supporter of St. Louis University's basketball program and enjoys collecting Motown music.

RIP ROWAN
ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Rip Rowan is entering his eighth season as the Cardinals' assistant equipment manager. Rowan, a native of St. Louis, has been associated with the Cardinals since 1978, when he served as the visitors' bat boy.

The 32-year-old Rowan graduated from Pattonville High School in 1982 and began assisting in the Cardinal clubhouse in 1983, following two seasons as bat boy. He enjoys watching sports and playing racquetball in his spare time. He and his wife, Dawn, have two children, Jessica and Jacob.

JERRY RISCH
VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Jerry Risch is in his 31st season with the Cardinals and his 13th season as visiting clubhouse manager.

The 43-year-old Risch began working for the Cardinals in 1966 as the umpires' room manager. In 1969 and 1970, he served as the Redbirds' bat boy. He began working as an assistant in the visitors' clubhouse in 1971 and was named to his current position in 1983.

Risch is a graduate of Southwest High School, where he lettered in soccer. He attended Meramec Community College and the University of Missouri-St. Louis. Risch and his wife, the former Mary Catherine Arnold, have two children, Jessica and Joseph. Risch enjoys trout fishing, photography and racquetball in his spare time.

JIM DONOHUE III
BULLPEN CATCHER

Jim Donohue III is entering his fifth full season as the Cardinals' bullpen catcher. Donohue played in the Phillies' organization for two years. He is the son of former pitcher Jim Donohue Jr., who played with the Angels, Tigers and Twins during his two major league seasons.

"Bones," 30, graduated in 1988 from Kansas State University, where he was a four-year letterman in baseball.

Donohue enjoys listening to country music and jazz. His hobbies include golf, skiing and horseback riding. He had acting roles in three television series, "Hardball", "Coach" and "ER", during the 1994 off-season.

THE MANAGER

ANTHONY (TONY) LA RUSSA JR. (10)

Tony LaRussa is entering his first season as the Cardinals' manager. LaRussa, who was hired by the Cardinals on October 23, 1995, begins his first season of managing in the National League after spending the past 17 years managing in the American League with Oakland and Chicago.

LaRussa begins the 1996 season ranked second only to the Dodgers' Tom Lasorda in career wins among active managers with 1,320 and he ranks fifth in winning percentage (.527) among active major league skippers.

Regarded by his peers as one of the game's top managers, LaRussa's honors include three Manager of the Year awards, five American League Western Division titles, three American League Championships and one World Series Championship.

LaRussa began his professional managing career in 1978 with Knoxville of the Class A Southern League before taking his first major league managing job on August 2, 1979, with the Chicago White Sox.

In seven-plus seasons (1979-86) with the White Sox, Tony quickly established himself as one of the game's top managers and he saw his efforts pay off in 1983, when he guided the ChiSox to an American League West title with baseball's best record, 99-63. He was rewarded that year with the first of his three Manager of the Year awards, drawing accolades from The Sporting News, the Associated Press and the Baseball Writers' Association of America.

In 1984, Tony had the White Sox tied for first place at the All-Star break before finishing 5th that year with a 74-88 record. He was relieved of his duties on June 19, 1986, and assumed the manger's role with Oakland on July 7, 1986.

In just his second full year with the A's, 1988, Tony managed the club to an American League West record 104 wins, the A.L. pennant and into the World Series. He once again earned Manager of the Year honors from the BBWAA and The Sporting News. For three straight years, 1988-90, the A's led the major leagues in victories, only the 11th time in baseball history that a team had accomplished such a feat. During that span LaRussa's A's became the first team to win three consecutive A.L. pennants since the 1976-78 New York Yankees.

In 1989, Tony guided the Athletics to their fourth World Championship since the club moved to Oakland, sweeping the Giants in four straight games during the earthquake-interrupted Bay Bridge Series.

On July 14, 1991, LaRussa became the 40th manager in Major League history to win 1,000 career games. He earned a third Manager of the Year award in 1992 after steering the A's to their fourth A.L. West title in five years. He is the Oakland A's all-time leader in games managed (1,471) and victories (798).

The former infielder signed his first pro contract with the Kansas City A's on the night that he graduated from high school in 1962. He made his major league debut just one year later with the A's. Tony went on to play professionally for 16 seasons. Following his stint with Kansas City in 1963, Tony didn't make it to the majors again until 1968, this time with the A's of Oakland. He went on to play parts of four years in Oakland before finishing out his big-league playing career with Atlanta and the Chicago Cubs.

LaRussa, who becomes the Cardinals' 48th manager, was actually employed by the Cardinals once previously, serving as both a player and coach for the club's triple-A New Orleans affiliate in 1977.

A graduate of Florida State University's School of Law in 1978, Tony passed the bar exam in December, 1979, making him one of only five lawyer/managers in baseball history. The other four are Monte Ward (New York Giants and Brooklyn, late 1880s), Hughie Jennings (Detroit, 1907-20, New York Giants, 1924), Miller Huggins (St. Louis Cardinals and New York Yankees, 1913-29) and Branch Rickey (St. Louis Browns, 1914-15, St. Louis Cardinals, 1919-25) who are all in the Hall of Fame.

LaRussa, 51, makes his off-season home in Danville, Calif., with his wife, Elaine, and their two daughters, Bianca Tai (9/14/79) and Devon Kai (8/17/82). Tony was born on 10/4/44 in Tampa, Fla., and graduated from Jefferson High School in Tampa. He also holds a degree in industrial management from The University of South Florida in Tampa.

THE COACHES

MARK STEPHEN DeJOHN (9)

BULLPEN COACH

DeJohn, 42, has served as the Cardinals' field coordinator for player development for the past three seasons and was a manager in the Cardinals' farm system from 1986-1991. He has also managed and coached in the Detroit Tigers, and Kansas City Royals' farm systems.

DeJohn was drafted by the New York Mets in 1971 and played in the Mets' farm system until his release in December 1977. He was signed by the Detroit Tigers in 1978 and completed his playing career in 1983. The former infielder saw his only major league action in 1982 with Detroit.

He managed the Detroit Tigers' Class AA London affiliate in 1992 before returning to the Cardinals' organization in 1993. Mark broke into the coaching ranks with the Tigers in 1984, serving as a minor league instructor, and he coached at Kansas City's Eugene affiliate during the 1985 season. He began his managerial career that same year with Detroit's Birmingham farm club.

He joined the Cardinals organization in 1986, managing the Savannah Cardinals to a 75-60 record. He spent two seasons in Savannah before taking the helm of the Midwest League's Springfield Cardinals in 1988. The next year, he was named manager of Johnson City, where he spent two seasons.

Mark was originally drafted by the New York Mets in 1971, and later signed with the Toronto Blue Jays but never played in their organization.

DeJohn and his wife, Judith Marie, make their home in New Britain, Conn., with their two children, Timothy and Stephanie. DeJohn attended Woodrow Wilson High School in Middletown, Conn.

DAVID EDWIN (DAVE) DUNCAN (18)
PITCHING COACH

Duncan, 50, was named Cardinals' pitching coach on October 23, 1995. He previously had served as pitching coach of the Oakland A's since July 1986, when he, along with Tony La Russa, joined the American League club.

Under Duncan's guidance, the A's pitching staff proved to be one of the best in baseball. From 1988-1990, the Athletics had the lowest ERA in the league. In 1990, the A's topped the majors in ERA, becoming just the second A.L. pitching staff to lead the majors in ERA since the inception of the DH rule in 1973.

Duncan began his coaching career in 1978 with the Cleveland Indians. In 1982, he was hired as pitching coach the Seattle Mariners, and the M's responded by leading the A.L. in strikeouts and finishing second in saves and shutouts. He left the Mariners in 1983 to join La Russa and the Chicago White Sox.

The former catcher signed with the Kansas City A's in 1963 and made his major league debut with the A's in 1964. When the A's moved to Oakland, Dave moved with them and spent five years (1968-72) in Oakland as a player, appearing in both the 1971 and 1972 American League Championship Series and the 1972 World Series. After leaving the A's, Dave finished his playing career with two-year stints in both Cleveland (1973-74) and Baltimore (1975-76).

During his career, Dave has been associated with six Cy Young Award winners. He coached with Bob Welch, Dennis Eckersley and LaMarr Hoyt, and caught Vide Blue and Jim Hunter in Oakland, and Jim Palmer in Baltimore when all six pitchers won their awards.

Duncan and his wife, Jeanine, have two sons, Christopher and David, and they make their off-season home in Tucson, Ariz.

RONALD (RON) WILLIAM HASSEY (28)
BENCH COACH

Hassey, 43, served on Don Baylor's coaching staff at Colorado for the past three seasons, splitting time between the first-base, third-base and bench-coach positions. His duties also included working with the catchers and compiling the hitting and defensive charts that are used during the games.

Hassey spent 14 years in the majors, beginning in 1978 with the Cleveland Indians. He also logged major league service with the Chicago Cubs and Chicago White Sox, the New York Yankees, Oakland A's and Montreal Expos. With Oakland, he made consecutive visits to the World Series in 1988, 1989 and 1990 while playing for La Russa. He is the only catcher in major league history to have caught two perfect games - Cleveland's Len Barker vs Toronto (5/15/81) and Montreal's Dennis Martinez vs Los Angeles (7/28/91).

Following the conclusion of his playing career in 1991, Hassey served as an advance scout for the Yankees in 1992.

Hassey graduated from Tucson, Ariz. High School in 1972 and went on to star at the University of Arizona, where he earned All-America honors and was a member of the 1976 National Championship team. He holds a degree in Public Administration from Arizona. Ron played on the 1974 and 1975 USA teams and participated in the 1976 Pan American Games.

He and his wife, Jennifer, make their off-season home in Tucson with their son, Brad, and two daughters, Kimberly and Dana. Ron's father, Bill, was an outfielder in the New York Yankees' organization from 1949-52.

GEORGE ANDREW HENDRICK JR. (25)
HITTING COACH

Hendrick is entering his first season as the Cardinals' hitting coach and his first season as a coach at the major league level. "Silent George," who played for the Cardinals from 1978 to 1984, served as a roving hitting/outfield instructor in the Cardinals' minor league system the past three seasons.

A four-time All-Star, Hendrick concluded his 18-year playing career in 1988 with California. He was drafted by the Oakland A's in the first round (first player selected) in the January 1968, free-agent draft and made his big-league debut with the A's in 1971. He was traded with Dave Duncan to the Cleveland Indians in March, 1973, for catcher Ray Fosse and infielder Jack Heidemann. He posted a .278 career batting average in 2,048 games with Oakland (1971-72), Cleveland (1973-76), San Diego (1977-78), St. Louis (1978-84), Pittsburgh (1985) and California (1985-88).

The 46-year-old Hendrick played for World Series winners with the Cardinals in 1982 and the A's in 1972. George holds the Cardinals single-season record for sacrifice flies (14 - 1982).

He and his wife, Heidi, make their home in Los Angeles. His son, Brian, was a former standout performer on the California University basketball team.

DAVID (DAVE) LAWRENCE McKAY (39)
FIRST-BASE COACH

McKay, 45, begins his first season with the Cardinals this year, ending a 16-year association with the Oakland A's, where he had coached since 1984. Dave served as a first-base, bullpen and bench coach with the A's, and has handled the first-base coaching duties for Tony La Russa since 1989.

McKay was signed by the Minnesota Twins in 1971 and spent four seasons in the minors before breaking in with the Twins in a big way by homering off Detroit's Vern Ruhle in his first big-league at-bat on August 22, 1975. He also hit safely in 21 of his first 22 games in the majors.

After the 1976 season, the Toronto Blue Jays selected McKay in the expansion draft, and he was the starting third baseman in the Jays' first game ever. He split time between Toronto and Syracuse in 1979 before signing with the A's in 1980. Dave played for Oakland from 1980-82, helping the A's to the Western Division crown in 1981 by batting .288 in the latter half of the season and by belting a home run in the divisional playoff series vs Kansas City. He spent the 1983 season in the minor leagues as a player/coach.

Dave earned a degree in physical education from Columbia Basin Junior College in Pasco, Wash. and later attended Creighton University in Omaha, Neb.

He was born in Vancouver, British Columbia, and his wife, Lene, is from Denmark. The couple make their home in Scottsdale, Ariz., with their son, Cody.

TOMMIE D. REYNOLDS (15)
THIRD-BASE COACH

Reynolds, 54, who last year completed his seventh season as a coach for Tony La Russa, and his third as the A's third-base coach, is entering his first year with the Cardinals. Tommie served as a bench coach in his first four years with La Russa and the A's.

Prior to joining the A's coaching staff, Reynolds was a manager in the A's minor league system from 1986-88, guiding the Huntsville Stars in 1988 and the Modesto A's the previous two years. Before that, he spent five seasons as a roving minor league hitting instructor for the Chicago White Sox and two seasons as a player/coach for Spokane.

Tommie began his major league playing career with the Kansas City A's and played parts of the 1964 and 1965 seasons with them. He spent the 1967 season with the New York Mets before landing in Oakland in 1969. He was a member of the California Angels in 1970 and '71 before closing out his playing career with the Milwaukee Brewers in 1972.

Reynolds and his wife, Penny, have two children, Tanya and Tommie Jr., and they make their off-season home in Lemon Grove, Calif. He is a graduate of Lincoln High School in San Diego and attended San Diego City College.

LOUIS CLARK BROCK (20)
SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Lou Brock, named as a special instructor on December 9, 1994, assists with base-running and outfield instruction during spring training and periodically throughout the season. He served as a base-running consultant for Montreal in 1993, Los Angeles in 1988 and Minnesota in 1987; all three clubs increased their stolen base totals over the previous season.

Brock, 56, is the National League's all-time leader with 938 stolen bases, including an N.L.-record 118 thefts in 1974. He established a major league record with 12 seasons of 50 or more steals (1965-76) and led the league in steals eight times. He was the first player to steal at least 50 bases and hit 20 homers in the same season, posting a 21-homer, 52-steal campaign in 1967. His 3,023 hits rank 17th on the all-time list.

While teammate Bob Gibson served as the pitching linchpin in the 1964, 1967 and 1968 World Series, Brock was the club's offensive catalyst. He established major league records for highest career batting average (.391) and most stolen bases in a single Series (seven, in 1967 and 1968).

In 1985, Brock was inducted into the Hall of Fame.

Since the end of his playing career, Brock has been involved in many marketing and promotional ventures. He is the founder and president of Brockworld Products. He also worked in the Cardinals' broadcast booth from 1981 to 1984.

ROBERT GIBSON (45)
SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Bob Gibson, who earned distinction as one of baseball's fiercest competitors and most dominating pitchers of all time while pitching for the Cardinals from 1959 to 1975, is entering his first season as a Cardinals special instructor.

Gibson, 60, served as the Cardinals' bullpen coach in 1995. He formerly was a pitching coach under Joe Torre for the New York Mets (1981) and Atlanta Braves (1982-84).

A winner of the N.L. Cy Young Award in 1968 and 1970, Gibson also earned league MVP honors in 1968, when he set a major league record for lowest ERA (1.12) for a pitcher with 300 or more innings. That June, he pitched five shutouts during the month, tying an N.L. record.

In World Series competition, few players compared with Gibson. He pitched a record eight consecutive complete games over the course of the 1964, 1967 and 1968 Series, winning seven games. His 35 strikeouts in the 1968 Series still stand as a record, as does his single-game mark of 17 strikeouts, established in the Series opener. He also holds the career mark for most games with 10 or more strikeouts (five).

Gibson was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1981. His career totals include a team-record 251 victories and 3,117 strikeouts. He fanned more than 200 batters in nine seasons, won nine Gold Gloves and was a nine-time N.L. All-Star. His uniform number 45 is one of six to be retired by the Cardinals.

Gibson recently authored his autobiography, "Stranger To The Game." He and his wife, Wendy, make their home in Bellevue, Neb.

ALBERT FRED "RED" SCHOENDIENST (2)
SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Schoendienst has been involved in professional baseball for the past 54 seasons. He coached in St. Louis from 1961-64 under Manager Johnny Keane and in 1965 began a 12-year stint as Cardinals manager, the longest tenure in club history. He managed the Cardinals to a World Series championship in 1967 and a National League pennant in 1968. He also served as interim manager of the Redbirds in 1980 and 1990, and coached for the Oakland A's in 1977 and '78.

As a player, Schoendienst appeared with the Cardinals in 15 seasons, mostly as their second baseman. He played in three World Series: in 1946 with the Cardinals and in 1957 and 1958 with Milwaukee. He was chosen to 10 N.L. All-Star Game squads, and in 1950 cracked a game-winning home run in the 14th inning. He also managed the National League to victories in 1968 and 1969.

In 1989, Schoendienst was paid baseball's ultimate compliment with induction into the Hall of Fame. During his career, he collected 2,449 hits, including a league-high 200 in 1957, batted .289, and tied or led the league in fielding at his position seven times.

Schoendienst was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame on November 7, 1987. During his playing days, he also participated with the Budweiser national bowling team.

"Red" was born on February 2, 1923, at Germantown, Illinois, and is married to the former Mary Eileen O'Reilly. They have four married children: Colleen (6/23/51), Cathleen (10/16/52), Eileen (3/19/57) and Kevin (11/3/58).

1995 SEASON: Saved 29 games, seventh in league and, for ninth straight season, tops on club...limited righthanded hitters to .145 batting average (11-76), .180 (79-438) over last four years...first hitters batted .163 (8-49), tied for sixth-lowest in league...allowed just one of 19 inherited runners to score...succeeded in 17 consecutive save situations, 5/2 - 7/4, posting a 2.77 ERA (8 ER/26 IP) and none of 10 inherited runners to score...carried errorless streak to 470 games before 5/7 vs TEX...had not errored as fielder since 4/28/87...became sixth pitcher to reach 300 saves, recording final three outs of 5-3 win, 5/24 vs BAL...hit milestone in 499th relief appearance, reducing previous record by 162 games (Bruce Sutter, 661)...career save no. 311, 7/1 vs CAL, moved him past Rich Gossage into fourth all-time...along with save streak, 36.2 IP homer-free (since 7/15/94) ended 7/8 vs TOR and Paul Molitor...earned second win of season after holding down fort while teammates reassumed lead in 6-3 victory...recorded six straight saves at end of August...pitched three innings 9/3 at SEA, longest outing since 8/12/87 (4.1 IP at SEA)...became baseball's ninth 900-game pitcher 9/30 at CAL...next to last appearance of season was 524th for A's, club pitching record...retired one batter in final outing 10/1 at CAL...has converted 85.4 percent (304-358) of save situations since 1988, third highest efficiency in majors...finished 21st season with 323 saves (fourth all-time), 320 saves with single club (first), 901 games pitched (ninth), and 2,285 strikeouts (32nd), 3.19 strikeouts per walk (third)...will become active leader in 1996 playing in 22nd big-league season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1972 — Once taken in third round of June draft by Indians, sent to Class A Reno of the California League...claimed first pro shutout among five wins. 1973 — Went 12-8 in second season with Reno...tied for Cal League lead with five shutouts in league-high 31 starts...recorded 218 strikeouts in 202 innings (9.71 K/9IP). 1974 — At Class AA San Antonio, selected Texas League Right-Handed Pitcher of the Year...led circuit with 163 strikeouts (in 167 IP) and .824 winning percentage, and shared top honors with 14 victories. 1975 — Promoted to majors, to become The Sporting News AL Rookie Pitcher of the Year...did so with 13-7 record and 2.60 ERA, third-lowest in league...kicked off career with 28.2 innings not allowing an earned run, major-league record...opened season with 10 relief appearances (14.1 IP), yielding an unearned run 4/28 at NYY while earning saves 5/13 at MIN and 5/18 at CWS...then fired three-hit shutout in first start, 5/25 vs OAK...gave up first earned run in big leagues 5/31 at OAK...won first four decisions before 6/21 loss vs MIL, despite striking out 10 in 6.1 innings. 1976 — Landed on 13 wins for second straight season...in 199 innings, struck out 200, the eighth pitcher to do so in the majors before the age of 22...struck out 10 or more eight times...seven of those performances occurred after the All-Star break, when he whiffed 138 in 119 innings (10.44 K/9 IP) while going 9-4 with 2.42 ERA...tossed two-hitter 4/23 vs OAK, first of three shutouts on season...recorded third career save 7/16 at MIN; would not earn another over next 10 seasons...tallied double-figure strikeout totals four times over six starts 7/30 - 8/23...highlighted this run with a career-best 14 on 8/13 vs TEX. 1977 — Maintained 3.54 strikeout-to-walk ratio (191 K/54 BB) over 247 innings in what would be first All-Star season...threw five-hitter over career-high 12 innings 5/25 vs SEA...followed that with a no-hit game 5/30 vs CAL, matching career best with 12 strikeouts while allowing just one walk...only hit allowed in six innings, 6/3 at SEA, brought an end to 22.1-inning hitless streak, second-longest ever (Cy Young, 25.1 IP, 1904)...made relief appearance in All-Star Game 7/19 at Yankee Stadium, fanning one in two hitless innings...produced one-hit shutout 8/12 vs MIL. 1978 — Went to Red Sox in six-player deal late in spring training...recorded career highs with 35 starts, 268 innings (nearly 7.2 IP/GS), and, thanks to an ERA below 3.00, 20 wins...went 11-1 in Fenway Park...threw 16 complete games, winning 13...won five straight decisions in May, capped with shutout 5/30 vs TOR...had six-game winning streak 6/11 - 7/16 to push record to 11-2...shut out CAL, 8/25, on four hits...victorious in last four starts, beginning with three-hitter 9/17 vs NYY, followed by three straight complete games, including shutout 9/26 vs DET. 1979 — Went the distance a career-high 17 times, second in league...won 17 times, tops on staff and tied for AL lead among righties...completed back-to-back 2.99 ERA seasons...delivered seven innings of two-hit, shutout ball, 4/5 vs CLE...won eight straight starts, 7/11 - 8/14, longest such streak of career, and posted 1.70 ERA (13 ER/69 IP)...began streak with seven consecutive complete games. 1980 — Streak of five straight winning seasons snapped, but does reach double figures for sixth time, with 12 triumphs...last win was second career one-hitter 9/26 at TOR, only a solo homer breaking no-hit and shutout bids, featuring season-high nine strikeouts vs one walk. 1981 — Had another winning season, but victory total held to nine in interrupted season...still pitched 154 innings in just 23 starts...recorded first of two shutouts 5/21 vs OAK, allowing two hits while striking out 12...posted other goose egg two starts later, with four-hitter 6/2 at CLE in next to last appearance before work stoppage...tossed 10-inning complete-game victory 9/16 vs DET. 1982 — Threw 11 complete games (last double-digit season in that category) and 224.1 in 33 starts...walked 1.73 batters per nine innings, 43 in all, lowest such yield as AL starter...made AL All-Star team in season that began with six complete games, three for shutouts, in first nine starts...opened with blanking on six hits 4/10 at BAL...worked 6.1 innings 4/21 vs BAL to earn 100th career victory...capper was three-hit effort over six innings, before the rains, 5/23 vs OAK...started All-Star Game 7/13 at MTL, going three innings but incurring loss in 4-1 game. 1983 — Opened ninth season 3-1, holding opposition to single run in each victory...later dropped 10 of 13 decisions in first losing season...walked only 39, but also struck out just 77...tossed lone complete game 6/25 vs NYY. 1984 — Started nine games for BoSox before trade to Cubs that leads to first postseason experience...won final two AL complete games, 4/27 at CWS and 5/21 vs CLE...traded 5/25 to CHI, along with Mike Brumley, for Bill Buckner...won 10 games and posted 3.03 ERA, missing by five outs qualification for NL ERA rankings...earned first NL victory 6/12 vs MTL, only win in first six decisions...won last decision before break, 7/1 at LA, allowing a run on four hits over eight innings, a sign of things to follow...went 8-3 with 2.06 ERA after All-Star break...highlight may well have been no decision, 8/9 at MTL, when he pitched four-hit shutout through nine innings, but teammates needed extras to win...started, but lost, third game of NL Championship Series at SD. 1985 — Had best year control-wise as big-league starter...walked 19 in 169.1 innings (1.01 BB/9IP) while recording 117 strikeouts (6.16 K/BB)...won four straight complete games 4/16 - 5/1...opened streak with 10-inning shutout 4/16 vs PHI, striking out 11...followed that five-hit blanking with another, 4/21 at MTL, to claim NL Pitcher of the Week honors...scoreless streak reached 22.1 innings...pitched three times in July and once in August, limited by tendinitis in right shoulder...in 11th major-league season, placed on disabled list for first time 8/11, reactivated 9/7...that day vs CIN, crashed first major-league home run. 1986 — Walked one per 20.05 batters faced (43 BB/862 BF), and one or less in 20 of 32 starts...led team with 201 innings, his sixth 200-plus-IP season, and 137 strikeouts...backed each of first two wins with bat, homering 5/10 vs SD and 5/26 vs CIN...recorded career win no. 150, 7/30 at NY...earned 4-1 victory in 100th career complete game, 7/8 at SF...made 301 consecutive starting appearances before entering in relief 6/24 at PHI. 1987 — On last weekend before Opening Day, sent to A's in five-player trade, and onto a second career...appeared in relief 52 of 54 times, used in long, setup and closer roles...settled in as closer after injury to Jay Howell, with whom he would tie for club lead with 16 saves...struck out 105 in 104 relief innings...earned first save since 1976 with 2.1 scoreless innings 4/25 vs SEA...made last start 5/31 at NYY, then began making new name for himself...pitched six perfect innings, retiring five on strikes, to earn win 6/6 vs CLE...set down first four hitters 6/10 at CWS, running perfect streak to 22 consecutive hitters; he carried stretch to 35 retirements of 37 hitters...saved 13 games after All-Star break, with virtually unfailing command of strike zone: 51 strikeouts vs five walks in 43.2 innings...fanned 15 in 12.2 IP over three straight outings 8/2 - 8/12,..whiffed five in 2.1 innings 9/13 vs KC. 1988 — Selected by The Sporting News as AL Fireman of the Year and to post-season All-Star Team...won Rolaids Relief Man Award and was runner-up to Frank Viola in Cy Young Award vote...collected all these accolades in first full season as closer by saving 45 games, one behind Dave Righetti's then major-league record, in 54 opportunities in back of Oakland pennant run...earned saves in first nine appearances and 12 opportunities...broke club record with 37th save, 9/3 vs NYY...back in postseason and set unbreakable record, saving all four games of ALCS sweep vs BOS, with six innings of one-hit shutout ball, to garner MVP honors...celebratory mood was tempered by Kirk Gibson's home run in World Series opener at LA...did come back with a scoreless inning in fourth game. 1989 — Despite missing one-fourth of the season with shoulder ailment, still finished fourth in league with 33 saves, in 39 tries...was unbeaten in four decisions with 1.56 ERA...kept lifting art of control to new plateaus, striking out 55 while walking three in 57.2 innings, one in 44.1 IP over last 38 games...opened season with 12 straight scoreless appearances, totalling 12.1 innings...went on DL with strained right shoulder 5/28 and did not return until after All-Star Game, the only Midsummer Classic he would miss over five-year stretch...reactivated 7/13, 40 games later...saved three of four ALCS wins vs TOR, including fifth-game clincher...saved last game of four-game World Series sweep at SF. 1990 — Finished fifth in AL Cy Young Award race and sixth, with a first-place vote, in AL MVP balloting...reason for the attention to this particular degree: he saved 48, breaking Righetti's big-league record, yet was still distant second in AL to Bobby Thigpen's 57...posted lowest season ERA, minimum 25 innings, in history at 0.61...blew two saves chances all year, succeeding original mission at career-high 96 percent clip...saved more games than allowed baserunners, 45 (41 hits and four walks)...saved 19 of Bob Welch's AL-leading 27 wins...save 4/15 at SEA made him sixth 100-save-100-win pitcher in history...went two full innings 5/16 at CLE for eighth straight victory since 8/11/88, matching career high...issued first walk of season 6/12 vs TEX, Julio Franco the first to draw base on balls after 185 consecutive hitters over 52 innings dating back to 8/15/89, longest walkless stretch of career...made fourth All-Star appearance on 7/10 at CHI, recording second career save in 2-0 win...save 9/15 vs MIN was 137th with OAK, breaking Rollie Fingers' club record...became second reliever in 1990 to match all-time record with No. 46 9/28 at TEX...saved eight without a miss after 9/1 to reach 48. 1991 — Shared The Sporting News AL Fireman of the Year award after 43-save season...had 2.96 ERA, amazingly higher than sum total of ERA each of past two seasons...had nine saves without failure vs CAL...converted 14 straight save opportunities over 17 outings, 5/15 - 6/30, during which his ERA was 0.44 (1 ER/20.2 IP)...tallied 87 strikeouts in 76 innings as opposed to giving nine walks...went 19 straight games, 5/12 - 7/4, without allowing hit to first batter...gave first walk of season 6/4 vs MIL, 31.2 innings and 123 batters since last one, 9/16/90...retired 22 consecutive hitters 7/28 - 8/10...recorded 2,000th career strikeout 8/16 at MIN, Chili Davis batting...became first pitcher to ever record three 40-save campaigns, 9/15 at TOR. 1992 — Named Cy Young Award winner and Most Valuable Player in AL from BBWAA, making him ninth such double-honoree in either league...chosen AL Fireman of the Year a third time by The Sporting News...led league with 51 saves, second-best ever at the time...in 54 chances, produced at 94.4 percent rate...earned a save against every team in league, eight in eight tries vs SEA...team won 64 of career-high 69 games in which he pitched...beneficiaries included 10 different pitchers, including 10 saves of 17 wins for fellow '96 new Redbird, Mike Moore...in 80 innings, won control battle 93 K-11 BB, including six intentional walks...completed four-season span during which he issued 27 walks in 287 innings (0.85 BB/9IP)...allowed two of 31 inherited runners to score, lowest yield in majors, while posting 1.91 ERA...entered tie game 4/20 vs CAL, then tossed two perfect innings, striking out season-high five...earned career save no. 200, 5/8 vs NYY, the third pitcher to reach that plateau and win 100 games...faced 108 straight hitters over 26.2 IP, 4/10 - 6/15, without giving a walk, his third walkless streak of at least 25 innings inside the space of three full seasons...recorded last two outs, though surrendering two unearned runs, in AL All-Star Game victory 7/14 at SD, his sixth All-Star outing...posted 36 straight saves, major-league record, to start season...his 33rd save, 7/29 at MIN, passed Willie Hernandez' previous record (DET, 1984)...back to end of '91 campaign, streak reached 40 before he gave up two runs in a single inning 8/8 vs KC...got the final out 8/23 at BAL for 40th save, his fourth 40-save season, big-league record...saved opener of ALCS vs TOR...also appeared in third and fifth games, blowing save opportunity in latter with Robbie Alomar's game-tying homer in ninth...A's had won in each of first 52 appearances before 8/25 loss at BOS...that decision snapped personal six-game win streak, en route to 7-1 record...last save of season, 9/24 at CWS, was 239th of career, breaking Dan Quisenberry's AL standard. 1993 — Earned 30 saves for sixth consecutive season, major league record...saved 36 games in 46 opportunities, placing fifth in AL, for team that finished on 68 wins...saved opening night win second straight year, 4/5 vs DET...had never blown three consecutive save situations until 4/15 - 4/21...posted career save no. 250, 6/13 at MIN...completed 3,000th career inning pitched and played 386th straight errorless game, 6/24 at SEA, breaking AL record. 1994 — Pitched in 20th major-league season, the 36th hurler to do so...led club in saves for eighth straight season, with 19, fourth in league...averaged more than one strikeout per inning for fourth straight season, fanning 47 in 44.1 innings...fielded position without error for seventh consecutive season, extending AL-record errorless streak to 466 games...missed on first three save opportunities, then, beginning 5/7 at CAL, recorded 19 straight saves without a failure...granted no base on balls until 5/22 vs CWS, breaking 108-batter, 24-inning streak since 9/3/93...struck out 13 in 9.2 innings in May...saw first seventh-inning action, 5/13 at KC, since taking over as A's closer in 1988...converted nine consecutive saves 6/14 - 7/10.

Age: 34
Born: 1-5-62 at San Antonio, Texas

BECAME CARDINAL: Signed as a free agent, December 12, 1994.

M.L. SERVICE: 11.078

1995 SEASON: Spent much of the season battling the side effects of cancerous thyroid condition and was felled by a severe ankle injury in early August that brought his year to an early close...started out 0-7 in his first 9 games, failing to last more than six innings in all but one of the nine...Danny was sidelined from 6/8-6/25 as he tried to build his stamina which was believed to be adversely effected by the medication he was taking for thyroid condition...made his first start after returning from the DL on 6/27 at HOU & suffered a 6-2 loss, allowing five first-inning runs (three earned)...settled down after the first & blanked the Astros on two hits in his final four innings of work...put an end to his 9-game losing skid by posting a CG 4-0 win over the Marlins on 7/7...allowed just four hits as he won for the first time as a Cardinal & for the first time since 8/3/94...the 9-game losing streak equalled the club's all-time record & it was the longest by a Cards pitcher since Bob Forsch lost nine-straight in 1978...his 0-9 start equalled Art Fromme's (1907) as the worst ever by a Cardinal from the start of a season...after winning for the first time on 7/7 vs FLA, Danny was 2-3 with a 3.66 ERA (46.2 IP/19 ER) in his last eight starts,including two CG efforts...he lowered his ERA 2.49 pts (8.39 - 5.90) after coming off the DL on 6/26...worked his 2nd CG of the season on 7/27 at MTL but suffered 10th defeat, losing 2-1...fanned a season-high seven batters in his 8 IP, allowing just four hits...held the Cubs to just two runs on six hits in 7 innings of work on 8/6...doubled in the 6th, and sprained his right ankle while rounding second base...tried to come back on 8/11 at SD, but lasted just 1.1 IP before exiting game when his ankle failed to hold up...was placed on the DL the next day & missed the remainder of the season...the Cards were 7-12 in his 19 games started.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1982 – Selected by Kansas City Royals as first player overall in secondary phase of January free-agent draft...was a combined 17-3 for Charleston in Class A South Atlantic League and Jacksonville of Class AA Southern League. 1983 – Started second professional season at Class AAA Omaha...ranked fifth in American Association with 3.97 ERA and tied for league lead with two shutouts...made major league debut 9/11 at MIN, earning victory in relief. 1984 – Split season between Omaha and Kansas City...pitched first big-league complete game 9/14 at SEA, losing a 2-1 decision...tied for American Association league lead with 10 complete games and three shutouts. 1985 – Tied for third on Royals staff with 14 victories...allowed only seven home runs in 208 innings for ratio of 1 homer per 29.7 IP, the best in A.L. ...in postseason, had 1.04 ERA in 26 innings (three starts, one relief stint)...pitched a complete-game shutout vs. TOR in Game Five of ALCS to help Royals avoid elimination...in Game Five of World Series, with Cardinals leading three games to one, led Royals to 6-1 victory with complete-game five-hit effort. 1986 – Opened season on disabled list with torn ligament in left ankle...joined Royals' rotation in mid-May...ranked fifth in A.L. with 3.20 ERA despite sub-.500 record...Kansas City scored two runs or less in nine of his 12 losses...had no-hitter through 8 innings of 10/1 start against CAL but settled for two-hit, complete-game victory...recorded only save of career 7/12 vs. DET. 1987 – Lost a career-high 18 games as Royals supported him with just 37 runs in those losses...pitched 11 complete games...was majors' toughest pitcher to homer against, yielding only 11 in 224 innings (1 per 20.4 IP)...fanned a career-high 12 batters 5/26 against CHI...traded in November with shortstop Angel Salazar to CIN for shortstop Kurt Stillwell and pitcher Ted Power. 1988 – In first N.L. season, won a career-high 23 games, tying for the league lead in that category and in complete games (15)...pitched a career-high 260.2 innings, ranking second in N.L. ...also tied for second in shutouts (six), tied for ninth in strikeouts (161), third in games started (35) and 10th in ERA (2.73)...finished second in Cy Young Award voting to Dodgers' Orel Hershiser...allowed one earned run or less in 17 starts...was All-Star Game selectee for first time but did not pitch...voted N.L. pitcher of month in August, posting 6-1 record and 2.23 ERA...pitched four straight complete games 8/9 - 8/22...was 11-1 in a 13-start stretch between 6/28 and 8/22, with only loss by 1-0 score...named left-handed starter on The Sporting News' postseason N.L. All-Star team. 1989 – Beset by shoulder problems, spent much of the season on the disabled list...underwent arthroscopic surgery on left shoulder 7/31...also had operation on left big toe 9/28. 1990 – Made only two starts in April while recovering from shoulder surgery of previous season...in 4/29 start against MTL was hit on left forearm by Junior Noboa line drive; went on disabled list until 5/17...went on disabled list a second time 7/18 when shoulder problems resurfaced; disabled until 8/8...after two-inning relief stint vs. LA on 8/8 contracted a viral infection; was on disabled list until 8/30...was 4-2 in 11-start stretch from 5/20 - 7/12, allowing more than two earned runs in only one outing...allowed two earned runs or less in 14 of 21 regular-season starts...pitched season-high eight innings in 9/28 start against SD, allowing only three hits...made three starts in postseason, winning Game Three of NLCS vs. PIT, 6-3...started Game Six, pitching one-hit, one-run ball for six innings without earning decision. 1991 – Signed as a free agent in the off-season by the Cubs...lost a 4-1 decision on opening day to the Cardinals while pitching a season-high 7.1 innings...was the third opening-day start of his career (lost to White Sox 5-4 in 1987, beat Dodgers 6-4 in 1989)...suffered a strained left groin in his third start 4/19 at PIT; on disabled list until 6/9...earned only victory of season 6/14 at SD...returned to disabled list 6/20 - 8/3 with lower abdominal strain...worked into sixth inning in only three of eight starts after being activated...made final three appearances in relief...Cubs scored six runs in his five losses. 1992 – Lost seven straight decisions to start the season...won first game 6/5 at MTL...traded to Pittsburgh 7/11 for third baseman Steve Buechele...made Pirates debut 7/19 vs. Cubs without earning decision in 4-2 CHI victory...recorded first victory as Pirate 7/30 vs. Cardinals...allowed only six home runs in 201.1 IP for season...started Game Two of NLCS at ATL, yielding four runs on four hits and two walks in 1.2 IP. 1993 – Pitched over 200 innings for second straight season and fifth time in career...pitched a complete-game shutout 6/12 at NY, his first CG since 7/18/89 vs. PHI and first shutout since 9/4/88 at CHI...pitched second complete game 7/31 vs. PIT...allowed only 12 home runs and just one in last 11 starts...became first pitcher to appear in LCS with four different teams...led Phillies to 2-1 Game Four victory vs. ATL, pitching one-run ball for 7.2 innings and breaking 1-1 tie in fourth with run-scoring single...started and lost Game Three of World Series vs. TOR, surrendering four runs in 5 IP. 1994 – Anchor of Philadelphia starting rotation tied for third in N.L. with 14 victories, the most in the circuit by a left-hander...finished among league's Top 10 in innings pitched (second, 179.1), starts (tied for second, 25), complete games (tied for fourth, four), strikeouts (seventh, 129), winning percentage (seventh, .700), ERA (ninth, 3.26) and fewest walks per 9 IP (10th, 2.3)...struck out 1,000th career batter (Brian Dorsett) 4/6 at CIN...fanned a team-high nine batters twice, 5/2 vs. SD and 5/13 vs. PIT...recorded 100th career victory 6/2 at CHI...had a team-high five RBI 6/18 at MTL, tying a Phillies record for RBI by a pitcher...had a 24-inning walkless streak 6/18 - 7/9...did not walk more than four batters in any outing...had six walkless starts...appeared in second career All-Star Game...named left-handed pitcher on The Sporting News' postseason N.L. M.L. SERVICE: 3.119

1995 SEASON: Made the long road back from shoulder surgery and was the club's top starter by season's end...after missing all of 1994 due to injury, made his first start since '93 on 4/29 at NY...was 0-1, 4.09 after his first four starts when it was discovered that his ailing left elbow needed rest...was DLed from 5/15 - 7/13 due to elbow soreness...began injury rehab on 6/28 & was a combined 0-2 with a 3.00 ERA in three injury rehab starts with Arkansas (AA) and Louisville (AAA)...fought to return to his form of '93, but was 0-5 with five no-decisions in his first 10 starts after returning from the DL...surrendered 3 HR's & 7 runs in 4 IP on 7/21 vs the Phillies in 7-0 loss...held the Dodgers to just one run on six hits in his 6 innings of work on 8/8...left the game with 3-1 lead, but took ND as LA rallied for a 4-3 win in their final two at-bats...allowed four runs in 3 IP on 8/19 vs ATL & had ND in Cards' 5-4 win...game was delayed by rain for 1 hr. 22 min., which cut short Donovan's work for the night...had no-decision in Cards' 6-5 win vs the Reds on 8/24...teammates staked him to early 5-0 lead, but he was victimized by two Ron Gant homers & left the game after allowing five runs in 5 IP...fell behind early on 9/3 vs COL, allowing four first-inning runs, but keyed Cards' 4-run fourth inning with his 2-run double ...took no-decision in Cards' 5-4 x-inning loss to the Rockies...won for the first time in 16 games dating back to 8/18/93 when he downed the Padres, 5-2, on 9/8...worked a season-high 8 IP & allowed just two runs (both on HR's) and four hits...won for the 2nd-straight start in Cards' 8-4 win over the Giants on 9/13 completing a 3-game series sweep over Frisco...won for the 3rd-straight start with a 4-2 win at PIT on 9/18...held the Bucs scoreless for the first six innings before allowing two runs (one earned) in the 7th...blanked the Astros for seven innings on 9/24, allowing just three hits, but had no-decision in Cards' 1-0 x-inning loss...equalled '95 club high for cons. wins (4) with his 3-2 win over PIT on 9/29 in his final start of the season...Donovan finished 4-0 with a 2.20 ERA (41 IP/10 ER) in his six starts during Sept, lowering his ERA for the year from 4.73 to 3.81...the Cards were 8-11 in his 18 starts, averaging 3.0 RPG...they were shutout in four of those starts...didn't allow a homer in his last four starts, however he did allow a team-high 17 HR's for the year...14 of the 17 round-trippers he dealt were to RH batters...finished with a team-leading 82 strikeouts, the club's lowest team-leading total since the strike-shortened season of 1981.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1990 – Was drafted by the Cardinals in the 1st round (13th player overall) of the June, free-agent draft...was assigned to Hamilton, Ont. (A) on July 8 after signing contract...appeared in four games at Hamilton and was 0-2 with a 3.60 ERA...struck out 14 batters in 20 IP for the Redbirds...was promoted to Savannah (A) on July 31...gained his first professional win on 8/25, allowing one unearned run in 7 IP...was winning pitcher in Game #2 of SAL playoff game vs Columbia, SC, when he pitched 7 innings of 2-hit ball, while striking out 7...was 3-0 with a 1.04 ERA in eight games during the Cards' Winter Instructional League season. 1991 – Second-year pro posted a 8-12 mark with a 3.63 ERA at Arkansas (AA)...finished 7th in the Texas League in ERA, second in Innings pitched (166) and fourth in strikeouts (130)...was 3-1 with a 1.93 ERA in July...hurled consecutive 3-hitters on 7/17 and 7/24, while recording 18 strikeouts...had a 3:1 (130 SO/43 BB) strikeouts-to-walks ratio and in two seasons has struck out 172, while walking just 55. 1992 – Rookie lefthander wasn't even supposed to be in the Cards' plans for '92, but injury to Bryn Smith in the first week expedited his call-up from Arkansas (AA)...faired well in big league initiation, finishing second on the club with his 11 wins...made his ML debut on 4/9 vs Mets, but had to be removed from the game after two innings when his sprained left ankle, suffered while fielding a hit on the first play of the game, began to tighten...allowed just one run in 7 IP of 4/14 start at MTL to earn his first win in the majors, 3-1...hurled 7 scoreless innings on 4/23 at NY, but had ND in extra-inning loss...combined with Lee Smith for 4-hit shutout of the Padres on 5/2 at SD...was 3-0 with a 1.23 ERA after his first five starts...struck out a season-high 10 batters on 5/7 vs SF, but lost 2-0 decision in head-to-head meeting with the Giants and Bill Swift...retired 24 straight batters in 5/29 start vs SD, but had no-decision after leaving the game with 1-0 lead after 8.2 IP...won two games on Cards' west coast trip in July, including 6-3 win over the Padres on 7/7 and 1-0 win vs Giants on 7/2 at SF...put together a 15-inning scoreless streak, 6/27-7/7...was 7-5 with a 3.19 ERA at the All-Star break...was moved to the bullpen in late July when he fell into a brief slump...made five relief appearances between July 28 and August 18...was 1-1 with a 3.60 ERA (10 IP/4 ER) out of the bullpen...worked four innings, allowing one run, in 8/9 relief outing vs the Pirates, his last relief appearance prior to returning to the starting rotation on 8/16...was 3-3 with a 3.78 ERA (22 ER/52.1 IP) in 9 starts after returning to the starting rotation...won his 10th decision of the year in his 9/1 start vs the Padres...allowed just six hits in seven shutout innings of Cards' 2-0 win...walked just 38 batters in 179 IP (1.9 BB/9 IP), making him one of three Cards' pitchers to finish in the top-10 among NL pitchers in fewest walks allowed per 9 IP...was 3-0 vs SF...posted a 0.50 ERA in three starts vs NY, but had no decisions vs the Mets...collected his first ML hit with single on 4/27 at LA...was named to Baseball Digest's All-Rookie team. 1993 – Did credible job following solid rookie season, however late-season injury hindered his progress...had no-decisions in four-straight starts from 4/14-4/28 and had ND in 9 of his 26 starts for the year...owned the lowest ERA (3.76) among STL starters & finished 3rd on the club in wins with 10...put together a 6-game winning streak from 6/14-7/19...the Cardinals were winners in 9 of Donovan's 10 starts from 5/28-7/19 & they were a combined 15-11 (.577) in his 26 starts for the year...allowed first inning 3-run homer to Matt Williams on 6/9 @ SF and was tagged with 3-1 loss...went the distance for his first career complete game...combined on 4-0 shutout vs the Braves on 7/19 at ATL to improve his record to 9-3...lost 1-0 decision on 8/3 when he & Cards fell to the Marlins and Charlie Hough, 1-0...had no-decision in 8/13 start at MTL (4-3 loss in 11 innings) and was 2-1 loser vs CHI on 8/8 as Cubs' Hibbard doubled in winning run with his first ML hit... walked 47 batters, nine more then he'd allowed the previous season...allowed an average of 11.6 baserunners (hits + walks)/9 IP...the Cards averaged 4.6 RPG in his 26 starts (119 runs)...of the 18 homers he allowed, only two were by LH batters...opposing LH batters hit a combined .205...was 7-3 with a 2.50 ERA at home...sat out the final month of the season after developing tendinitis in his left shoulder. Follow-up exams found that shoulder had become loose ... had surgery to repair his injured shoulder.

1994 – Missed the entire season after undergoing reconstructive surgery in December 1993 to tighten tendons and repair looseness in his injured left shoulder.

OZZIE SMITH (1)

OSBORNE EARL SMITH

Shortstop

Ht: 5-10 Bats: Both
Wt: 180 Throws: Right

Age: 41
Born: 12-26-54 at Mobile, Alabama

BECAME CARDINAL: Acquired from the San Diego Padres in a trade for shortstop Garry Templeton, February 11, 1982.

M.L. SERVICE: 17,119

1995 SEASON: Continued to add to his list of career achievements even though much of the '95 season was lost to a shoulder injury...became the majors' oldest opening day shortstop since 1950 (Luke Appling) and oldest Cards' shortstop since 1918 (B. Wallace)...was batting .250 & had hit in 5-straight games when he was forced to the sidelines by injury on 5/18...was DLed for just the 4th time in his 18-year career and underwent arthroscopic shoulder surgery on 5/31...was activated from DL on 8/18 after missing a total of 77 games...while on the DL, the Cards' were 19 games under .500 at 29-48, but when Oz was active, the club played at a .500 (33-33) clip...continued to draw accolades while on the DL...was named the 1995 recipient of the prestigious Roberto Clemete Award for community service & the fans voted him to the All-Star team for a NL record 12th time...Ozzie added to his collection of career fielding records on 9/15 vs LA when he turned his 1,554th doubleplay, breaking the mark that was previously held by Luis Aparicio...Oz moved past Curt Flood & Ken Boyer into 6th place on the Cardinals' all-time hits (1,880) list and he passed Enos Slaughter to move into 2nd place among the club's bases on balls (851) career leaders.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS : 1977 – Selected by San Diego in fourth round of June free-agent draft and signed by Padres' scouts Cliff Ditto and Bob Fontaine...led Northwest League shortstops in assists (254), double plays (40) and fielding pct. (.943)...led loop in stolen bases with 30...during the off-season caught the eye of Padres brass with .323 avg. in Arizona Instructional League. 1978 – Became SD regular shortstop after only 68 games in the minor leagues...played in 159 games, leading the league in sacrifice hits with 28 and finishing 4th in stolen bases with 40...was runner-up to Atlanta's Bob Horner for Rookie of the Year honors. 1979 – Led N.L. shortstops with 555 assists...was League's 5th toughest hitter to fan (1 every 17.54 AB). 1980 – Capped a sensational defensive season at shortstop by winning his first Gold Glove after setting a new major league record for assists by a shortstop...set the new mark 9/26 vs LA when he surpassed a mark Pittsburgh's Glenn Wright had established in 1924. Wright's mark was 601 assists and Oz finished the season with 621...also participated in more double plays than any other N.L. shortstop...may have set the stage for his season by handling 16 total chances, including 12 assists, 4/12 vs SF...joined with Gene Richards and Jerry Mumphrey to become the first trio in N.L. history to all steal 50 bases in same season – Smith (57), Richards (61), Mumphrey (52)...led league with 23 sacrifice hits. 1981 – Played in all 110 games, tying for N.L. high...league leader in at-bats with 450...led N.L. shortstops in assists, total chances and fielding pct. 1982 – Was the N.L.'s best shortstop on a percentage basis, won his third straight Gold Glove and led the league in assists for the fourth straight year...984 fielding percentage is a Cardinal season record for a shortstop...not only did he maintain his level of performance on the field, but Ozzie also emerged as a solid hitter after working with Cardinal coaches at spring training on developing his swing to take advantage of Busch's artificial turf...after missing only 13 games in his first four major league seasons, Smith was sidelined for 18 days late in the year due to a hematoma of his right thigh...Smith set a 7-game World Series record for most putouts by a shortstop with 22. In 1982 Smith maintained his level of near perfect performances in the field; his .976 fielding percentage was best in the league...led the National League in chances with 658 and in games played with 110...was named one of St. Louis' Baseball Men of the Year by the local BBWAA Chapter...voted to UPI and Sporting News post-season All-Star team. 1983 – Was the league's best shortstop in terms of putouts and total chances even though for the first time in five years he was edged out of the lead in the assist category, finished behind Houston's Dickie Thon...led the 1983 Cardinals in games played, was second in sacrifice hits and walks and third in doubles, triples, stolen bases and game-

winning RBI. 1984 – Was recognized as the National League's premier shortstop on A.P., U.P.I., and The Sporting News post-season teams, and for the second consecutive season was voted the N.L.'s starting shortstop on the All-Star team...did not win this wide acclaim on past reputation either, he earned it on the field, leading the N.L. in fielding pct. (.982), while committing a career low 12 errors...also sparked the Cardinals with his bat and speed, his .314 mark from the right side of the plate was tops in his career and his 11 sacrifices led the team. On the basepaths, Ozzie was one of the league's most successful thieves making good on 35 of 42 stolen base attempts, a success rate of 83...was also one of the most difficult players to strikeout, averaging a strikeout only every 28.5 plate appearances...missed a month of the season when he was hit by a Ed Whitson pitch 7/13 that fractured the ulna bone in his right wrist. Returned from the disabled list 8/20 in grand fashion going 2-for-4 (double, triple)...thrilled opening night crowd with his traditional season opening pre-game backflip, and then closed the evening's festivities with a three-run homer to defeat PIT, 4-1...finished 10th in N.L. stolen bases (35). 1985 – Prior to home opener, 4/15, Cardinals end weeks of trade rumors and speculation by signing Smith to a four year contract extension. Ozzie pays immediate dividend on Redbird investment with 2-for-3 outing in opener and his first home run of season...goes through month of April flawless at shortstop, does not commit first error of season until 5/4...on 6/20, appearing to be a shoe-in for selection to third straight starting assignment at the All-Star Game, Ozzie vows to raise his batting average which stands at .242 before the mid-summer classic. OZZIE'S FAVORITE DEFENSIVE PLAYS

	Date	Situation	Defensive Gem
1.	4/20/78 vs ATL	4th Inning, 2 Out	Jeff Burroughs hits ground ball up middle. As Ozzie dives to left, ball caroms into air. Ozzie reaches high, grabs ball bare-handed, throws Burroughs out at first.
2.	8/4/86 vs PHI	9th Inning, 1 Out	Von Hayes hits shallow fly to left field. Outfielder dives headfirst toward infield, Ozzie dives headlong toward outfield and makes basket catch in midair.
3.	8/6/86 vs PHI	3rd Inning, 1 Out, 1 On	With Ronn Reynolds running from second on play, Gary Redus hits infield single to deep short. Instead of throwing to first, Ozzie throws behind Reynolds, who is tagged out after rounding third base.

Pitcher

Ht: 6-3 Bats: Right
Wt: 210 Throws: Right

Age: 29 (Turns 30 on July 5)
Born: 7-5-66 at Dade City, Florida

BECAME CARDINAL: Signed as a minor-league free-agent, November 24, 1995.

M.L. SERVICE: 2.139

1995 SEASON: Spent bulk of season with Columbus of the International League, sixth season in eight he had spent time with Yankees' Class AAA affiliate...posted his fifth straight winning season with that club...went the season without allowing a home run, over 109 innings in 22 appearances...permitted 1.82 walks per nine innings (22 BB/109 IP), and as a starter, 1.66, fourth in IL...won first start, 7/21 vs TEX, allowing three runs in 5.1 innings.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1987 – Good control evident in his first year of pro ball, as he walked 1.08 batters per nine innings (11 BB/91.2 IP) in Class A competition at Oneonta (New York-Pennsylvania League) and Fort Lauderdale (Florida State League)...was undefeated for Oneonta, with four wins in five starts, yielding just a 1.84 ERA and a .189 batting average...tossed first pro shutout among four complete games and five wins in eight outings with Fort Lauderdale's league champions. 1988 – Promoted to Class AA Albany of the Eastern League, eventually another pennant-winning club...went 9-5 with a 2.56 ERA (fifth in EL) over first 18 starts, including co-league leading seven complete games, to land on league's midseason All-Star Team...made one International League start for Class AAA Columbus, winning 5-3 on 7/29 vs Toledo before NYY purchased contract...made major-league debut 8/3 vs MIL, finishing with no decision (7 IP, 3 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 2 BB, 3 K) in a 6-5 Brewer victory...made two other ND starts before returning to Columbus 8/18. 1989 – Opened at Columbus, then recalled 6/17 after winning six of last seven starts, and posting a 2.52 ERA during 6-1 stretch, to raise record to 7-3...first start with big club yielded first major-league win 6/17 vs TEX, allowing seven hits over seven innings in 5-3 triumph...re-optioned to Columbus 7/15, where he won twice in six further starts. 1990 – Named Pitcher-of-the-Year in both International League and organization as he led Columbus to IL Championship Series...topped league with 16 wins (tying the club record) and 11 complete games (including two two-hitters and two three-hitters), and tied for IL lead with three shutouts...complete games and .762 winning percentage led NYY farm system, wins tied for lead, shutouts tied for second and 175.1 innings were third...twice chosen Pitcher-of-the-Week and, for July, Topps Player-of-the-Month...promoted after playoffs, tossed career-high 8.1 innings, allowing four hits but not a run with a walk and five strikeouts, but finishing with no decision in 1-0 loss 9/10 vs TEX. 1991 – Landed on opening day roster in majors for first time, holding down third spot in Yankee rotation...season interrupted by bruised right heel and time on the disabled list, 5/28 - 7/12, which included a rehabilitation assignment to Columbus from 6/13...stayed there until 8/5, going 6-1 with a 2.40 ERA and two complete games in nine starts. 1992 – Won Padres roster spot out of spring training after being non-roster invitee...made first NL start 4/10 vs LA, allowing an unearned run on four hits over four-plus innings...though getting no decision in 8-3 win, did contribute with bat, cracking two-run homer in second on first pro plate appearance...became 66th player, 35th from NL, to collect a four-bagger in initial big-league at-bat...made four more starts before back spasms forced him to DL 5/8, retroactive to 5/4...following six rehabilitation starts, with 3-0 record, at Class AAA Las Vegas of the Pacific Coast League, reactivated 6/26...yielded two runs over six innings in first start back, 6/29 at LA...left after three innings of next outing, 7/4 vs MTL, after bruising left ankle in sliding into home plate...went back on DL 7/9 (retro 7/5) and began another rehabilitation stint with Las Vegas 7/28...finished season there, optioned 8/27, making eight more starts. 1993 – Opened year in big leagues...went seven innings in first start without allowing an earned run, but two unearned markers spelled defeat 4/10 at FLA...worked seven innings twice over next nine starts...designated for assignment to Las Vegas 5/27, but opted for free agency...signed with Cleveland 5/29, and sent to Class AAA Charlotte of the International League...won once in eight starts there, then traded to Rangers 8/5...went 3-1 in seven starts with Class AAA Oklahoma City of the American Association. 1994 – Back with NYY, spent year at Columbus, leading team with 26 starts and 84 strikeouts, and finished 10th in IL with 3.58 ERA and fifth allowing 2.11 walks per nine innings (33 BB/140.2 IP)...held lefthanded hitters to .224 batting average...went 21.1 innings without allowing an earned run, 7/15 - 7/31.

MISC: Attended University of Florida, where he played baseball and football...transferred to University of South Florida, where he played only baseball, but was named All-Sun Belt Conference and preseason All-America...graduated from Zephyrhills H.S., where he was an all-state baseball player as well as being all-conference in basketball and football...lettered three times in those sports, and also played golf...married to the former Sandra Tuscano (11/9/91), they have a daughter, Nicole Marie (10/15/93)...name is pronounced EYE-land.

1995 SEASON: Saw more work behind the plate following injury to Pagnozzi...started a total of 32 games (29-C, 3-2B)...appeared in 8 of the club's first 18 games before being outrighted to Louisville...was called up on 5/23 and remained with the club for the rest of the season...hit his first NL homer on 5/28 vs CIN...hit safely in 5 of his last 9 games to raise his season-ending BA to .144...reached base three times on 9/8 vs SD & had his 3rd GWRBI of the season...homered on both 8/18 & 8/19 vs ATL...the HR's proved to be GWRBIs in both games...16 of his 17 hits, each of his 3 HR's & 8 of his 9 RBIs came at Busch...threw out 10 of 29 (34%) attempted base stealers.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1986 – After being the A's first-round selection in the June free-agent draft, began his pro career at single-A Madison of the Midwest League...wasted no time showing why he was the A's top pick...batted .306 in 22 games for the Muskies...also added 13 RBIs and 9 runs scored. 1987 – Spent some time in the A's major league camp...split the year between Madison and Huntsville...got off to a hot start at Madison, hitting .333 in his first 10 games with 4 homers and 17 RBIs...in 90 games, finished at .289 with 8 homers and 52 RBIs...also added 27 steals...named 9th best prospect in the Midwest League, by Baseball America...promoted to Huntsville on 7/15...struggled at the plate, hitting .182 in 33 games. 1988 – First full year at AA Huntsville...made the switch from catcher to third base and was fine defensively but had a tough time at the plate...led the club with his 22 doubles and his 9 homers ranked 2nd on the Stars...also added 29 steals. 1989 – Second consecutive full season at AA Huntsville, but by September had earned his first promotion to the majors...played in four Sept. games for the A's, all in pinch-running roles...at Huntsville, finished 2nd in the league in runs scored (89) and tied for 4th in steals (45)...also raised his BA by 45 pts...spent most of his time at third base (106 games), but also put some time in at catcher (32 games). 1990 – Spent the majority of the season in Tacoma, but did have an 11-day stint with the A's in July...made his second position switch since being drafted as a catcher...was moved to second base at Tacoma...early part of season was disrupted when he fractured the hook of the hamate bone in his left hand on 5/17...he eventually needed surgery in mid-September to correct the fracture...appeared in 7 games and made three starts, all at third base, following his recall on 7/18...also appeared in one game at 2B...went 0-for-first 10 before picking up his first ML hit 7/24 off the Angels' Jim Abbott...recorded one more hit before returning to Tacoma on 7/27...finished the year at Tacoma batting .243 in 72 games. 1991 – Bounced between the A's and Tacoma four seperate times in 1991...was first brought up on 4/16 but made just four appearances and was sent back down on 4/27...was up and down twice more in June and July before he was recalled a fourth and final time on 8/31...saw his most extensive duty of the year in Sept./Oct. when he saw action in 11 games including his first ML appearance behind the plate...caught in eight games with two starts...stole his first base on 10/5 at TEX. 1992 – Started the year in Oakland but was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 5/10 with a left rib cage pull..was sent on rehab assignment to AA Huntsville on 6/5...hit .333 with 2 RBIs over 9 games with the Stars...returned to the DL on 6/15 and was moved to the 60-day DL on 6/30...sent on rehab to Tacoma on 7/17...returned to Oakland on 7/25...was claimed on waivers by the White Sox on 8/16...started twice with the ChiSox, once in LF and once at DH...also appeared at third and catcher. 1993 – Was reacquired on 3/29 from the White Sox via the waiver wire and was the A's backup catcher...played the entire season at the major league level...saw most of his playing time in the second half of the season following an injury to Terry Steinbach...up to the break had appeared in 57 games with 149 at-bats and hit .282 with all 6 of his homers and 22 of his 26 RBIs...threw out 34% (26/76) of runners attempting to steal... set a franchise record for steals by a catcher with 13...he totaled 14 steals in 19 attempts for the year, but one was

as a pinch-runner...was the only major league catcher in 1993 to start games in the leadoff spot...made two starts as the A's leadoff man...hit .308 for the month of July with his first ML homer and 9 RBIs in 17 games...the homer came at CLE on 7/21, a three-run shot off the Tribe's Wertz...finished the night with a career-high 5 RBIs...did his best hitting of the season in Sept. as he finished the month with a .345 BA (20-58), 2 HRs and 7 RBIs...had a career-best 10-game hitting streak 9/12-22, which included his first 4-hit game, 9/21 vs KC...pulled a groin muscle on 9/24 and sat out the final seven games of the season. 1994 – Started at four different positions for the Athletics as he continued his "Super Sub" role...overall, started a total of 58 games, 24 at catcher, 24 at 2B, 6 at 3B and 4 at 1B...was A's starter at second base for 15 of the final 24 games following injury to Brent Gates...also played two games in the outfield and had 6 pinch-running and 5 pinch-hitting appearances...caught a total of 239 innings and threw out 7 of 18 (39%) attempted basestealers...opened the season 0-for-22, but broke the drought with a single on 4/24 at NYY...went on a hot streak and collected 25 hits in his next 81 at-bats (.309)...hit .310 in the month of May, but July was his best overall month as he hit .269 with three doubles, two homers and nine RBIs...had a streak of five games, 7/22-29, where he knocked in 8 runs...hit a 3-run homer with two out in bottom of the 8th on 7/24 vs BAL to tie game at 6-6...the homer capped a 6-run comeback by the A's and they went on to a 7-6 win...hit 2 of his 3 HR's and had 6 RBIs vs the Orioles...at .316 (6-for-19) was one of the top hitters on the club with two out and RISP...was 3-for-4 with 7 RBIs when batting with the bases loaded.

MISC: Graduated from Dunedin (Fla.) H.S. in 1983...attended University of South Florida in Tampa for three years, the same school that A's manager Tony LaRussa received his undergraduate degree from...was signed to Sporting News College All-America team in 1986...signed by A's scout Bill Gayton...Scott and his wife, Myra, reside in Dunedin, Fla., they have a daughter, Hailigh (1)...name is pronounced HEE-mond.

Age: 36
Born: 11-26-59 at Eakly, Oklahoma.

BECAME CARDINAL: Signed as a minor-league free agent, February 15, 1996.

M.L. SERVICE: 13.040

1995 SEASON: Opened season on promising note, with back-to-back road wins 4/26 at CAL and 4/30 at SEA...fired two-hit ball over six innings in win 5/14 at TEX...lost only complete game, 4-2, 5/19 vs TOR...broke three-game skid with 6.1 innings allowing two runs, 6/24 vs MIL, returning to .500 mark...went without a win, dropping 10 decisions over 12 starts, before 9/3 release.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1981 — Was first righthanded pitcher to ever be the top pick in the free-agent draft...enjoyed winning season at Class AA Lynn, with two shutouts among six victories. 1982 — Non-roster invitee in first major league camp, won spot on Opening Day roster with 0.45 ERA (1 ER/20 IP) in spring training...earned first big-league win 4/22 vs MIN...threw first shutout, allowing four hits, 7/24 at CLE. 1983 — Began season with Mariners but was sent to Class AAA Salt Lake City after 0-3 start...was over .500 for remainder of season following return...tossed two-hit shutout 8/23 vs MIL. 1984 — Finished sixth in AL with 158 strikeouts...made first Opening Night start. 1985 — Tied club record with 17 wins and worked career-high 14 complete games...averaged nearly 7.1 IP per start, highest rate of career...opened with seven full innings of no-hit ball 5/8 at MIL...went on disabled list 6/5 with strained right thigh, was reactivated 6/21. 1986 — Started 37 games, a new team standard...pitched career-high 266 innings...recorded first major-league save with perfect ninth inning, 9/8 vs OAK. 1987 — Averaged seven innings a start for third straight season...went the route 12 times, also three years running for double-figure complete games. 1988 — Struck out 182, career high...moved to bullpen after first 10 starts ended with six losses in eight decisions...fared better in five relief appearances, gaining a win and a save before making next start 6/14...posted 2.28 ERA over final two months...registered career-high 16 strikeouts in 6-1 win 8/19 at NYY. 1989 — Now in Oakland, won 19 games, career high, followed by three in postseason to back league title defense and eventual world championship...also decorated best season with 2.61 ERA, lowest of career...led team with 172 strikeouts...tallied 200-plus-IP for sixth consecutive season (241.2)...held opposing hitters to .219 average...landed in All-Star Game for first time, fanning one in a 1-2-3 inning in Anaheim...offered precedent of October to follow with 5-0 win in West Division clincher 9/27 vs TEX...won second game of AL Championship Series vs TOR, allowing an unearned run and three hits over seven innings...then emerged victorious in second and fourth games of World Series sweep vs SF, giving three runs in 13 innings. 1990 —Posted double figures in "W" column for fourth time in six seasons, with 13...permitted just a run in six innings to win third game of ALCS vs BOS, sending A's on way to sweep and third straight pennant...started third game of World Series vs CIN, but only lasted 2.2 innings in a loss. 1991 — Topped staff with 17 wins and 153 strikeouts...was sixth in league with 2.96 ERA...was 11-3 with 2.14 ERA at home...limited opponents to .229 BA...notched 100th career triumph in 3-1 decision 4/17 at CAL...suffered strained right groin, placed on DL 7/20...reactivated 8/6, going 8-1 with 1.96 ERA thereafter. 1992 — Member of third West champs in four years...another 17 wins again led club, as did 223 innings and co-league-leading 36 starts...unbeaten with four wins and 1.51 ERA in first five starts, stretching career-high winning streak to nine games...aided title chase with 10-5 finish over last 19 starts...started twice in ALCS vs TOR, dropping decision both times. 1993 — Signed as a free agent with Tigers...tied for league lead with 36 starts, reaching 32-plus for 10th straight season...also led club with 213.1 innings, breaking the 200-inning mark for the ninth time in 10 seasons...Opening Day starter, 4/5 at OAK, but took 9-4 loss...got measure of former teammates in home opener 4/13, winning 20-4, first of three victories against A's (also won three times vs CLE)...was at .500 when he tossed first of two one-hitters, 3-0, 7/25 vs KC...triggered three-game win streak and was first of eight victories in final 12 decisions...the other one-hit shutout came with nine runs of support 8/23 vs OAK...last of three blankings, and the 16th of his career, occurred 9/10 at CWS, as he yielded just two hits. 1994 — Shared AL lead for third straight year with 25 starts...was club's top winner with 11, hitting double-digits for sixth consecutive season...pitched at least eight innings seven times, going the distance on four occasions...worked Opening Day yet again, finishing with no decision in 9-8 loss 4/4 at BOS...won three starts in a row 5/31 - 6/10.

MISC: Named to The Sporting News College All-America Team of 1981, this following 12-2 junior season at Oral Roberts University that led to number-one selection in free agent draft...opted for college though picked by Cardinals in third round of 1978 draft...named prep baseball All-American at Eakly H.S., where he was 1978 graduate...chosen Most Valuable Player of 1979 and 1980 National Baseball Congress national tournaments, pitching for Liberal, Kan....lives in Tempe, Ariz., married to the former Joyce Hart...the Moores have twin daughters, Amanda and Jessica (3/26/87) and a son, Samuel (1/30/90).

CARDINALS WORLD SERIES STORY

1926 The Cardinals defeated the Yankees, four games to three, to win their first world championship. Veteran 39-year-old right-hander Grover Cleveland Alexander, obtained by the Redbirds in a midseason trade with the Chicago Cubs, won the second and sixth games, then came on to save the seventh.

1928 Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig paced the Yankees to a four-game sweep of the Cardinals. Ruth batted .625 for the Series and hit three home runs in one game, and Gehrig batted .545 with nine runs batted in. Four of Gehrig's six hits were home runs.

1930 Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics defeated the Cardinals, four games to two, as the Redbirds hit only .200 and the Athletics .197. Cardinal victories were pitched by Bill Hallahan, 5-0, in the third game, and Jesse Haines, 3-1, in the fourth.

1931 The Cardinals got revenge against the Athletics, defeating them four games to three. Pepper Martin, the Wild Horse of the Osage, paced the Redbirds, stealing five bases, collecting 12 hits and hitting .500. Bill Hallahan and Burleigh Grimes each pitched two victories for the Cardinals.

1934 The "Gas House Gang" won the National League pennant on the final day of the season, then defeated Detroit in the Series, four games to three. Dizzy and Paul Dean, who combined to win 49 games during the regular season, each won two games over the Tigers. The final game of the Series, won by the Cardinals, 11-0, was marked by Commissioner Kenesaw Landis' order to eject Joe (Ducky) Medwick from the game. Medwick had slid hard into Tigers third baseman Marv Owen in the sixth inning, so infuriating Detroit fans that they bombarded Medwick with fruit, vegetables and debris when he took his position in left field in the bottom of the inning. Landis removed Medwick to halt the disturbance.

1942 The Cardinals lost the first game of the Series to the Yankees, then roared back to win four straight. Rookie pitcher Johnny Beazley won two games, lefthander Ernie White shut out the Yankees in the third game, and third baseman Whitey Kurowski belted an RBI-triple in the second game and a two-run, ninth-inning homer to clinch the finale.

1943 The Yankees evened their World Series record against the Cardinals at 2-2 by defeating the Redbirds in five games. The turning point of the Series occurred in the third game. With the Cardinals holding a 2-1 lead in the eighth inning, Johnny Lindell crashed into Whitey Kurowski at third on pinch-hitter George Stirnweiss' sacrifice bunt and jarred the ball loose from Kurowski's hand. After a fly out and an intentional walk, Billy Johnson's triple drove home three runs, igniting a five-run inning and a 6-2 Yankee victory. Manager Joe McCarthy's team won the next two games, 2-1 and 2-0, to take the championship.

1944 In this only all-St. Louis World Series, pitching dominated as the Cardinals defeated the Browns, four games to two. The two teams combined to strike out a six-game Series-record 92 batters, 49 by Cardinal pitchers and 43 by Browns hurlers. Emil Verban topped Cardinal hitters with a .412 average.

1946 Harry (The Cat) Brecheen won three games and the Cardinals topped the Boston Red Sox, four games to three. With the score tied 3-3 in the bottom of the eighth inning of the seventh game, Enos Slaughter singled, then scored all the way from first on Harry Walker's double to left-center, a sprint that surprised Red Sox relay man Johnny Pesky, whose moment's hesitation allowed Slaughter to score the winning run.

1964 A team victory for the Cardinals, who defeated the Yankees, four games to three. Bob Gibson won two games; Ken Boyer hit a grand slam to win the fourth game; Tim McCarver, who batted a Series-high .478, smashed a 10th-inning home run to win the fifth game; and Ron Taylor and Roger Craig combined for 9.2 scoreless innings of relief.

1967 Bob Gibson pitched three complete-game victories and Lou Brock put on one of the finest offensive displays in World Series history as the Cardinals defeated the Boston Red Sox, four games to three. Gibson limited the Red Sox to only 14 hits in three games, and Brock topped all Series hitters with a .414 batting average. Lou also set a Series record by stealing seven bases, and Roger Maris hit .385 and drove in seven runs.

1968 The Cardinals led three games to one, but the Detroit Tigers rallied to win the last three contests and claim their first world championship since 1945. Left-hander Mickey Lolich, who pitched all season in the shadow of 31-game winner Denny McLain, was superb for the Tigers as he won three games, including the 4-1 finale. Bob Gibson won two games for the Redbirds and set Series records by striking out 17 batters in Game One and 35 in the Series, breaking the mark of 31 he set against the Yankees in 1964. Lou Brock batted .464 and stole seven bases.

1982 The Cardinals rallied from a 3-2 deficit in games to defeat the Milwaukee Brewers and bring the World Series Championship trophy back to St. Louis for the first time in 15 years. Joaquin Andujar nailed down two victories and posted a 1.35 ERA while reliever Bruce Sutter posted a win and two saves. John Stuper became only the 14th rookie to start two World Series games, winning the crucial sixth game, a rain-delayed contest that took five hours to complete. Dane Iorg batted .529 and tied a Series record for most hits by a designated hitter. Rookie Willie McGee turned heads by hitting two home runs and making two spectacular catches in one game. Catcher Darrell Porter was named the Series MVP on the strength of his clutch hitting and solid defense.

1985 The Cardinals won the National League Championship Series after losing the first two games to the Los Angeles Dodgers, then winning four straight, including the decisive sixth game on Jack Clark's three-run, ninth-inning homer. In the World Series, they won the first two games at Kansas City, then lost four of the next five games behind an offense that batted only .185 for the Series. John Tudor and Todd Worrell pitched the Cardinals to victory in Game One, and Terry Pendleton's ninth-inning, bases-loaded double sparked a 4-2 victory the next day. Kansas City won its first game, 6-1, behind Brett Saberhagen's pitching, then lost Game Four to Tudor, 3-0. Danny Jackson stopped the Redbirds, 6-1, in the fifth game, although Worrell tied a Series record by striking out six consecutive batters in two innings of relief. The pivotal moment of the Series occurred in the ninth inning of Game Six, with the Cardinals leading, 1-0. After Kansas City leadoff man Jorge Orta reached first on a disputed call by an umpire and Steve Balboni singled after his catchable pop-up fell safely in foul territory, former Cardinal pinch-hitter Dane Iorg stroked a one-out, two-run single for a 2-1 Royals victory. Game Seven was no contest, an 11-0 Royals victory.

1987 After coming back from a 3-2 deficit in games to win the National League Championship Series against San Francisco, the Cardinals lost their first two games of the World Series at Minnesota. Returning to Busch Stadium for Game Three, the Redbirds used a three-run seventh and strong pitching by John Tudor to cut the deficit to 2-1. The next night, utility infielder Tom Lawless, who was filling in for injured third baseman Terry Pendleton, led the Cards to a 7-2 win with a three-run homer in the fourth. The round-tripper was just the second for Lawless at the major league level. The Cardinals completed their sweep at home with a 4-2 win in Game Five. Vince Coleman and Ozzie Smith each stole two bases, and Todd Worrell earned his second save of the Series in relief of winner Danny Cox. In Game Six, the Cardinals took a 5-2 lead into the fifth inning, but homers by Don Baylor and Kent Hrbek carried the Twins to an 11-5 victory. In the decisive seventh game, Series MVP Frank Viola allowed only two runs and Greg Gagne broke a 2-2 sixth-inning tie with an infield single, giving Minnesota a 4-2 victory and its first-ever World Series title. The Series was the first in which the home team won each of the seven games.

CARDINALS HISTORICAL / SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

1876 St. Louis became a charter member of the National League, then withdrew after the 1877 season.

1892 St. Louis rejoined the N.L. as the Browns, later becoming the Perfectos.

1899 The team changed its name from Perfectos to Cardinals.

1920 The team moved from Robison Field to Sportsman's Park.

1922 Rogers Hornsby won the Triple Crown with 42 home runs, 152 RBI and a .401 batting average.

1924 Hornsby won the batting title with a .424 average, the highest mark in the National League since 1900.

1925 Hornsby won his second Triple Crown with 39 home runs, 143 RBI and a .403 average.

1937 Joe (Ducky) Medwick won the Triple Crown with 31 home runs, 154 RBI and a .374 batting average.

1940 First night games in St. Louis for the Browns and then Cardinals. Johnny Mize hit a club-record 43 home runs.

1946 Home paid attendance topped 1 million for the first time.

1948 Stan Musial won his third N.L. Most Valuable Player award and led the league in nearly every batting department — average (.376); runs (135); hits (230); total bases (429); doubles (46); triples (18); runs batted in (131); and slugging percentage (.702).

1950 The Cardinals played their first night opener in St. Louis.

1953 Anheuser-Busch, Inc., bought the Cardinals, renovated Sportsman's Park and renamed it Busch Stadium.

1954 Musial hit five home runs in a May 2 double-header against the Giants at Busch Stadium.

1957 Musial established a National League endurance record by extending his streak of consecutive games played to 895 before an injury forced him to the bench. The mishap occurred at Philadelphia on August 22, when he tore a muscle and chipped a bone in his shoulder blade as he swung at and missed a high, outside pitch. He won the batting title with a .351 average.

1958 Musial, pinch-hitting in the sixth inning, doubled against the Cubs at Wrigley Field on May 13 to collect his 3,000th career hit.

1962 Musial, nearing his 42nd birthday, made a bid for his eighth batting title by hitting .330, but Tommy Davis of the Los Angeles Dodgers won the crown with a .346 mark.

1963 Musial, who won seven National League batting titles in his 22-year career with the Cardinals and had a lifetime average of .331, announced his retirement. His famous No. 6 became the first Cardinal number to be retired.

1966 The Cardinals closed old Busch Stadium on May 8 with a 10-5 loss to the San Francisco Giants. On May 12, they opened the new Busch Memorial Stadium in downtown St. Louis by defeating the Atlanta Braves, 4-3, in 12 innings. The winning run scored when Lou Brock singled with the bases loaded, driving in Curt Flood. The winning pitcher was Don Dennis, the loser Phil Niekro. Mike Shannon got the first Cardinal hit, a first-inning single, and Atlanta's Felipe Alou hit two home runs. The Cardinals also hosted the All-Star Game.

1967 Home paid attendance topped 2 million for the first time.

1968 Bob Gibson had a 22-9 record, hurled 13 shutouts, had a 15-game winning streak and allowed only 38 earned runs in 304 innings for a 1.12 ERA, a major league record for a pitcher who worked more than 300 innings. He set a World Series strikeout record with 17 in the first game against Detroit. His remarkable season earned him the National League's Cy Young and Most Valuable Player awards.

1969 On September 15 against the New York Mets, Steve Carlton struck out 19 batters, a major league record at that time. However, he lost the game, 4-3, as Ron Swoboda hit a pair of two-run homers. Carlton struck out at least one man in every inning and fanned the side in four different frames. The playing surface at Busch Stadium was changed from grass to artificial turf.

1970 Gibson had a 23-7 record and received his second N.L. Cy Young Award.

1971 Joe Torre won the N.L. batting title with a .363 average and was named league MVP. Gibson pitched his only career no-hitter, an 11-0 victory over the Pirates on August 14. Red Schoendienst established a longevity record for Cardinal managers, completing his seventh season. Lou Brock became the first major league player to steal 50 or more bases in seven consecutive years.

1972 Gibson extends his major league record for most season 200 or more strikeouts to nine. Gibson sets National League record with his 2,786th strikeout, the most lifetime for a right-handed pitcher. Brock extends his record for most consecutive season, 50 or more stolen bases to 8. Cardinals draw 50,000,000th fan since 1900.

1973 Brock steals his 600th base and moves into 9th place on the all-time list. Brock sets major league record for stealing 50 or more bases for 9 consecutive years. Gibson moves into second place on all-time strikeout list. Torre gets his 2000th hit and 1000th RBI.

1974 Brock steals 118 bases to break Maury Wills' one-season mark and Max Carey's National League career record. Lou moves from ninth to second on major league's all -time career stolen base list. Bob Gibson strikes out the 3,000th batter of his career to become only the second pitcher in baseball history to reach that figure. The Cardinals draw more than 1,800,000, the third highest home attendance in their history. Red Birds and Mets play 25 inning game, the longest night game in major league history and the longest game ever played to conclusion. Cardinals win as Bake McBride scores from first on two errors. McBride named "Rookie Of The Year."

1975 Lou Brock gets 2500th hit and 800th stolen base of his career. Bob Gibson retires after 17-year Cardinal career and 251 victories. Gibby is honored by SRO crowd on Bob Gibson Day. Jacket Day turnout of 50,548 is largest regular season crowd in St. Louis baseball history. Hrabosky compiles 13 wins and 22 saves and is named "Fireman of the Year." Ted Simmons finishes second in league batting race with .332 average.

1976 John Denny wins National League ERA title at age 23, tying youngest right-hander to win ERA title in N.L. Lou Brock gets 2700th hit of his career and closes to within 27 of tying Ty Cobb's stolen base record.

1977 Lou Brock breaks Ty Cobb's career stolen base mark with number 893 in San Diego, August 29. Garry Templeton becomes youngest M.L. shortstop ever to gather 200 hits in a season. Templeton leads majors with 18 triples, highest number since 1957. Ted Simmons sets club record for home runs by a catcher with 21. Ken Reitz sets new fielding record with N.L. third baseman by committing only 9 errors. Bob Forsch wins 20 games.

1978 Bob Forsch no hits Phillies 5-0, April 16 at Busch Stadium. Manager, Vern Rapp dismissed April 24. Ken Boyer becomes Cardinal Manager April 29. Ted Simmons sets club season record and career high with 22 homers for a catcher. George Hendrick has 7 RBI's at Atlanta, August 25. Busch Memorial Stadium gets new astroturf.

1979 Lou Brock collected his 3000th career hit (single off Dennis Lamp) in the 4th inning against the Cubs on August 13 at Busch Stadium. On September 23, Brock stole his 938th base making him baseball's all-time stolen base leader surpassing William (Sliding Billy) Hamilton. Keith Hernandez wins batting title with .344 average and is co-winner of National League M.V.P. award with Pittsburgh's Willie Stargell. Garry Templeton led N.L. with 211 hits. Templeton also led the league in triples with 19, for the third year in a row, setting a new N.L. record and tying the major league mark. His 19 triples are highest number since 1957. He became the first switch-hitter in major league history to collect 100 hits, both right and left-handed, in one season. Garry finished with 100 hits RH and 111 hits LH. Ted Simmons hit a career high 26 home runs, which also set a club record for homers by a catcher.

1980 Ken Reitz sets new fielding record for N.L. third baseman by committing only 8 errors. Dane Iorg has 7 RBI's, August 28 vs. Atlanta. Manager Ken Boyer dismissed June 8. Whitey Herzog becomes Cardinal manager June 9. On August 18, John Claiborne fired as G.M. and Herzog named G.M. on August 29. Red Schoendienst served as interim manager for balance of season. On October 24, Herzog assumed dual role of general manager and field manager.

1981 The Cardinals finished the season with the best winning percentage in the Eastern Division, but missed the playoffs because they finished second in each of the two sections of the schedule caused by the mid-summer players' strike. The Philadelphia Phillies, leaders when the strike began, were voted the first-half championship (however, the Phillies, Cardinals, and Cincinnati Reds voted against it), while Montreal won the second half. In each half, the Cardinals played fewer games than the "winners", and could have tied or won either half with the opportunity to play the same number of games. In the individual field, Bruce Sutter, one of several players obtained in winter trades by Herzog, was the National League's top reliever, winning the Rolaids Relief Man award.

1982 In order to concentrate more on his managing duties, Whitey Herzog stepped down as General Manager on Opening Day, turning the reins over to Joe McDonald. The move paid off as the Cardinals were out of first place for only 48 days of the season and claimed their first ever National League East Championship. A 3-0 sweep of the Atlanta Braves put the Cards in their 13th World Series against the Milwaukee Brewers who fell 4-3 to St. Louis in the 'Fall Classic.' The 1982 team was characterized by an aggressive running style of baseball; seven players stole bases in double figures, led by team catalyst Lonnie Smith, who swiped 68. The team hit only 67 home runs, the fewest in the major leagues. Strong and consistent pitching performances were the rule; prior to clinching the title the Cardinals never lost more than three games in a row. Bruce Sutter had a hand in almost half of the team's victories.

1983 Despite the fact that the 1983 Cardinals finished in fourth place, eleven games out, the team was competitive and exciting, although inconsistent, throughout much of the season. The team climbed to within game of the division lead on September 5 before embarking on a thirteen-day road trip during which the failure of the starting rotation caused the team to plummet out of contention. Still there were noteworthy performances during the year. As a team, the running Redbirds set a new club record with 207 stolen bases. Individually, Danny Cox made his way from extended spring training in April to playing a part in the Cardinals' starting rotation. Bob Forsch pitched the second no-hitter of his career. The league's best right-fielder, George Hendrick, moved to first base after Keith Hernandez was traded and earned post -season honors at his new position. Ozzie Smith won his fourth straight Gold Glove and Willie McGee won his first one.

1984 The Cardinals got off to a bad start in 1984 and dwelled in fifth place for much of the first half of the season before turning things around after the All-Star break. Following the mid-summer classic the Cards posted a 42-33 record, second in the National League only to the eventual N.L. Champions, the Chicago Cubs. That surge lifted the Cards into a third place finish in the division at year end despite contending with many injuries...The team's 220 stolen bases set a new club record, surpassing the 207 mark from 1983, and made them the first major league team since the 1916 St. Louis Browns to steal 200 or more bases three years in a row...Individually, Bruce Sutter set a National League and tied the major league record for saves in a season (45). Joaquin Andujar (20-14) became the club's first 20-game winner in seven seasons. Rookie Terry Pendleton hit .324 after joining the club in July and sparking the team to a 41-29 record...The Cards drew over 2,000,000 fans for the third consecutive year.

1985 The Cardinals lost their first four games, struggled to 7-7, then lost four more. The next time they reached .500 it was at 20-20, and then things got better. They finally made it to first place on June 21, and they were there most of the season. Five defeats in six games early in September left the Cardinals a game behind the New York Mets with 25 to play. But the Redbirds then won 14 of their next 15 and took the division title by three games with 101 victories. Individually, Willie McGee was the batting champion (at .353, a new high for a N.L. switch-hitter) and Most Valuable Player; Vince Coleman was Rookie of the Year, and John Tudor and Joaquin Andujar each won 21 games and Danny Cox took 18. Willie McGee and Ozzie Smith won Gold Gloves again, and great starts by Tommy Herr (110 RBI) and Jack Clark (22 homers) contributed.

1986 The defending National League Champions stumbled at the beginning of the season. After the first two months of the season the Cardinals had the worst record in the League. But the team righted itself posting winning records in each of the next four months to finish third in the National League's Eastern Division. Individually Vince Coleman stole 107 bases to become the first player ever to steal over 100 bases in each of his first two seasons and the first N.L. player to steal 100 bases twice; rookie left-hander Greg Mathews, who was promoted from Louisville, won 11 games in little more than half a season; Ozzie Smith won his seventh straight Gold Glove and Todd Worrell was named N.L. Rookie of the Year. Worrell blazed his way to a major league rookie record 36 saves, becoming the first rookie pitcher ever to lead the league in saves and the first rookie to earn N.L. Relief Pitcher of the Year honor...Three attendance milestones were hit and surpassed during the course of the season. The Cardinals reached the two million mark for the fifth consecutive year, drew the 75 millionth fan in the history of the franchise since 1900 and drew the 50 millionth fan to see the Redbirds play under Anheuser-Busch ownership.

1987 Sparked by a potent offense, the Cardinals slipped no further than two games back in the N.L. East standings and claimed sole possession of first place on May 22. Beset by injuries to several key players throughout the season, manager Whitey Herzog made use of a mixture of experienced veterans and eager rookies to fill the voids created by injuries. The Cardinals extended their lead to 9 games on July 23 but saw the lead shrink to 1 garnes as late as Sept. 19. A come-from-behind win at New York on Sept. 11 followed by a doubleheader sweep of the Expos on Sept. 29, set the stage for the pennant clinching win over Montreal on Oct. 1. Several Cards enjoyed banner seasons offensively, including Vince Coleman (third straight season with 100 SB), Jack Clark (35 HR and 106 RBI), Ozzie Smith (.300 BA for first time in his career), Terry Pendleton (.286 BA and 96 RBI), Willie McGee (105 RBI). The Redbirds had four starters with 10 or more victories (John Tudor, Bob Forsch, Greg Mathews and Danny Cox) while rookie Joe Magrane showed much promise in his initial season. In the bullpen, Todd Worrell followed up his impressive rookie season with 33 saves and Ken Dayley overcame serious elbow surgery to post nine wins in relief. 1987 was a fantastic year at the gate as well, as the Cardinals drew a Major League leading 3,072,122 fans, becoming just the third club in M.L. history to surpass the three million mark in attendance.

1988 After acquiring Tom Brunansky from Minnesota in April, the defending N.L. champions climbed within six games of first on June 12, but injuries to Bob Horner and Terry Pendleton crippled the offense. By the end of July, the Cardinals were 19 games out of first. Newcomer Jose DeLeon became the first Cards pitcher since 1972 to record 200 strikeouts. Sophomore hurler Joe Magrane won the N.L. ERA title with a 2.18 mark, despite winning just five games. Todd Worrell posted his third-straight 30-save season, and Vince Coleman led the league in stolen bases for the fourth consecutive year. Jose Oquendo became the first N.L. player since 1918 to play all nine positions in a season. Trades that brought such names as Pedro Guerrero, Denny Walling and Brunansky to St. Louis also ended long-time affiliations with departing players Tom Herr, Bob Forsch and John Tudor. Despite their fifth-place finish, the Cardinals drew nearly 2.9 million fans to Busch.

1989 Although the outlook was bleak when injuries crippled the pitching staff in spring training, the Cardinals remained in the race until the final week of the season. The Redbirds pulled within a half-game of the division-leading Chicago Cubs with a dramatic come-from-behind win on September 9, but a six-game losing streak followed and the Cards sunk to third place on the final day of the season. Pedro Guerrero was spectacular in the clutch, batting .406 with runners in scoring position and leading the club with 117 RBI and a .311 batting average. Vince Coleman again led the league in stolen bases and set a major league record by stealing 50 consecutive bases without being caught, a streak begun in 1988. Despite the early concern over the pitching staff, Joe Magrane (18 wins) and Jose DeLeon (16) spearheaded the patched-up starting unit. The Cardinals set a club attendance record, attracting 3,080,980 fans during a season that ended on a sad note when long-time club president August A. Busch Jr. died at age 90.

1990 Considered by many to be a contender following the spring training "lockout", the Cardinals never lived up to those expectations and finished in last place for the first time since 1918. On July 5, Manager Whitey Herzog resigned after more than 10 years as the Cards' skipper. Red Schoendienst managed the club on an interim basis until August 2, when Joe Torre was named manager. Willie McGee won the league batting title (.335), despite being traded to Oakland in late August as the team made room for younger players. One of those was rookie catcher Todd Zeile, who led the team with 15 homers. John Tudor returned to the club and posted a team-high 12 wins but announced his retirement following the season. Vince Coleman led the league in steals for the sixth consecutive season, tying Maury Wills' N.L. record, and batted a career-high .292. Starting pitchers Jose DeLeon (a league-high 19 losses) and Joe Magrane (17 losses) were disappointments. Reliever Lee Smith was a steady closer following his acquisition in May, saving 27 games. Jose Oquendo set a major league record for fewest errors by a second baseman (three).

1991 Coming off a last-place finish, the Cardinals were one of baseball's biggest surprises in 1991, moving up to second place in the N.L. East. Manager Joe Torre, in his first full season at the Cardinals' helm, opened the year with several unproven players in key roles. Among the young standouts were outfielders Ray Lankford and Felix Jose. Lankford led the majors with 15 triples and had a team-high 44 steals. Nine Cardinals stole 10 or more bases, the first time since 1917 that a team had done so. Former Athletic Jose, playing his first full season in the National League, led the Cardinals in batting (.305) and filled Busch Stadium's spacious gaps with 40 doubles. Sophomore Todd Zeile made a fine transition from catcher to third base, leading the club with 11 homers and 81 RBI. Catcher Tom Pagnozzi, seeing his first full-time duty, earned a Gold Glove award. The season also was a good one for Cardinals named Smith. Lee Smith set an N.L. record with 47 saves and became only the fifth pitcher to record 300 career saves. Ozzie Smith set an N.L. record for fewest errors by a shortstop (eight) en route to winning his 12th Gold Glove. Bryn Smith's 12 wins paced the pitching staff, which was without Joe Magrane, Frank DiPino and Todd Worrell due to injuries. Young starters Ken Hill (11 wins) and Omar Olivares (11 wins), and reliever Cris Carpenter (10 wins) helped fill the void.

1992 Though injuries took a toll in the Cardinals' centennial season, the team actually led the N.L. East by one game on June 1, despite losing three players in the first week of the season. Injuries or illnesses continued to mount, however, as the team lost shortstop Ozzie Smith to chicken pox for two weeks in late June and Omar Olivares and Rheal Cormier from the starting rotation. At second base, seven players were used. Ray Lankford, moved from first to third in the order, became the first Cardinal since Lou Brock in 1967 to hit 20 homers and steal 20 bases. Ozzie Smith tied Felix Jose for the club lead in batting (.295) and stole a team-high 43 bases. The "Wizard" also collected his 2,000th career hit and 500th stolen base, besides earning his 12th All-Star Game berth and 13th Gold Glove. Bob Tewksbury emerged as the No. 1 starter, winning 16 games and ranking second in the majors with a 2.16 ERA. He joined Smith on the N.L. All-Star squad, as did catcher Tom Pagnozzi, who tied a league mark with a .999 fielding average, and reliever Lee Smith, who led the league in saves (43) for the second straight season. Smith received help in the bullpen from Todd Worrell, who, after missing the last two seasons to injury, moved into the top spot on the Cards' all-time saves list. The team's major league record 16-game errorless streak in August helped establish a club record for fielding (.985). On the down side, the Redbirds set records for most strikeouts and caught stealing in a season. Moving the fences in proved beneficial. The Cards set a Busch Stadium season high while out-homering opponents, 55-52.

1993 Helped by a 20-7 mark in June (a club record for the month) and a potent offense, the Cardinals closed to within three games of the front-running Philadelphia Phillies in mid-July, only to fall 10 games back by the end of August. Midseason injuries to relievers Mike Perez, Les Lancaster and Paul Kilgus put the pitching staff on the skids. Offensively, several players enjoyed banner seasons, reflected by the team's 118 home runs, the most in 30 years. Newcomer Gregg Jefferies finished third in the N.L. batting race at .342 and swiped 46 bases, the most ever by a Cardinal first baseman. Mark Whiten cracked a team-high 25 home runs, including four in the second game of a September 7 double-header at Cincinnati, thus becoming only the 12th player to accomplish the feat. His 12 RBI in the game tied former Cardinal Jim Bottomley's major league record. For the season, Whiten finished with 99 RBI. Todd Zeile drove in 60 after the All-Star break, finishing with a team-high 103 RBI as he settled into the cleanup spot. Bernard Gilkey enjoyed a breakthrough season, leading the club in hits, extra-base hits and runs scored. Ozzie Smith recorded his 16th-straight 20-steal season and passed Larry Bowa to become the all-time N.L. leader in games played at shortstop. Gerald Perry tied a club record with 24 pinch-hits. Though the pitching was largely inconsistent, Bob Tewksbury led the staff with a career-best 17 wins and walked only 20 batters for the second straight season. Cuban rookie Rene Arocha ranked second on the staff with 11 wins, despite missing nearly a month with a broken finger. Reliever Lee Smith became the majors' career saves leader in April and set a club record for career saves (160) before being traded to the New York Yankees in late August. The Cards slipped defensively, committing 159 errors and failing to place a member on the Rawlings' Gold Glove team for the first time since 1977.

1994 The 1994 season started with a bang when Ray Lankford homered in the first at-bat of the season, but a players' strike in mid-August forced the cancellation of the remainder of the season and the World Series, ending the year in tragic fashion. When play was suspended on August 12, the Redbirds were 53-61 and tied with Pittsburgh for third place in the newly formed N.L. Central Division. The club's 5.14 ERA was its worst since 1897, and the opposition out-scored the Cards by nearly 100 runs. A seven-game winning streak by Bob Tewksbury and a consecutive-game homer streak of 12 games highlighted the early portion of the schedule, helping the club stay within five games of first place through July 2. The Cardinals were involved in 14 shutouts and, despite terribly inconsistent pitching, won seven of them. They tied an N.L. record by using six pitchers in a shutout (2-0) win at Pittsburgh on May 17. On May 24 against Philadelphia, they established a record for most runners left on base (16) in a shutout loss. The Cardinals blasted 108 home runs, exceeding the 100-homer plateau for just the second time since 1980, and were on pace to hit their most round-trippers since 1963. They hit a Busch Stadium-record five home runs in a July 1 win vs. Colorado. An 8-20 record in July included two of the team's lowest moments: On July 16 at Colorado, Cardinal pitchers walked a team-record 16 batters, one short of the N.L. record, and on July 18, the team tied an N.L. mark by losing an 11-run lead in its 15-12 loss at Houston. Ozzie Smith passed Luis Aparicio on July 14 to become baseball's all-time assist leader at shortstop. On September 1, Mark Lamping was appointed president, replacing the retiring Stuart Meyer. Lamping named Walt Jocketty as the club's general manager in October, replacing Dal Maxvill, who had held the title since 1985. Hall of Famers Bob Gibson and Lou Brock were named to manager Joe Torre's coaching staff for 1995.

1995 The 1995 season was a disappointment for all connected to the team, one in which the Cardinals posted a 62-81 mark, their worst winning percentage since 1990. The 1995 campaign was reduced to a 144-game schedule due to the player's strike that continued into the first week of April, and once play began on April 26, the Cardinals never would challenge for the NL Central lead and on June 16, manager Joe Torre was fired and replaced by Mike Jorgensen. While the Redbirds spent much of the season near the Central Division basement and never made noise in the pennant race, there were several highlights to the season. Reliever Tom Henke saved 36 of 38 opportunities, including a team-record 22-straight to begin the season, and won his first Rolaids Relief title while also notching his 300th career save, making him just the 7th player in baseball history to reach the 300 save plateau. Henke headlined the league's best bullpen, one that led the NL with a 2.71 ERA and a .225 opponent's batting mark. Rich DeLucia led the team with his eight wins, all in relief, and his win total was the lowest ever to lead the club. Jeff Parrett and lefty specialist Tony Fossas were other frequent contributors out of the pen and rookie T.J. Mathews was strong down the stretch. On offense, the Cardinals outfield trio of Bernard Gilkey (team-high .298 BA), Ray Lankford (25 HR's & 82 RBIs) and Brian Jordan (22 HR's & 81 RBIs) led the way. Lankford's 25 homers were the most ever by a Cards' centerfielder and he became just the 7th Cardinal to hit 25 homers since Busch Stadium opened in 1966. Lankford was also a force on the basepaths, tying Jordan for the team lead in steals with 24, making him only the 5th Cardinal and the first since 1948 to lead the team in both home runs and steals. Jordan and Lankford also teamed to form the Redbirds' first 20-homer tandem since 1980. First baseman/outfielder John Mabry (.307) narrowly missed qualifying for the NL top-10 in batting, but was good enough to lead all NL rookies in batting, earning a spot on the Topp's All-Rookie team. Ozzie Smith, who was slowed by a shoulder injury, added to his collection of fielding records when he became the all-time leader in doubleplays among shortstops on Sept. 15 with his 1,554th. Oz also became the first ML shortstop since 1950 to play at the age of 40 and he was the first Cardinal to do so since 1918. Off the bench, veteran Gerald Perry became the club's all-time pinch-hit leader (70), rookie Mark Sweeney hit in 7-straight pinch at-bats, one short of the major league record, and Danny Sheaffer hit the Cards' first pinch grand slam in nearly 10 years. The Cardinals took part in two bizarre games at Dodger Stadium, including a 7-error game on May 12, their highest single-game total since 1940, and a 2-1 forfeit win on August 10, the first forfeited game in the majors since 1979. Troubles continued for the Cards in San Diego where they went winless for the 3rd-straight season, lengthening their streak of futility at the "Murph" to 15-straight games. While starting pitchers Danny Jackson and Ken Hill failed to fulfill expectations, Mike Morgan, who was acquired in a June trade for Todd Zeile, gave the Busch Stadium crowd a night to remember on July 3 when he held Montreal batters hitless for 8.1 innings. A busy off-season included the naming of Tony La Russa as manager, the selection of a new coaching staff and the announced sale of the Cardinals to a group of long-time Cardinals fans led by Frederick Hanser, William DeWitt Jr. and Andrew Baur. The Busch Stadium playing surface was changed to natural grass prior to the 1996 season, replacing the artificial surface that had been a stadium fixture dating back to 1969.

BUSCH STADIUM

In the mid-1950s, several years after he persuaded the board of directors of Anheuser-Busch to purchase the St. Louis Cardinals, August A. Busch Jr. realized that if the team was to continue to prosper and attract the fans necessary to support a major league franchise, it would have to move to a new stadium.

Mr. Busch took his idea for a new stadium in downtown St. Louis to city officials and civic leaders. Their interest in a major redevelopment of the downtown area and their realization that a new stadium could serve as the focal point paved the way for the laying of groundwork for the project.

In 1964, ground was broken, and on May 12, 1966, Busch Stadium officially opened as the new home of the St. Louis Cardinals. In a 12-inning inaugural, the Cardinals defeated the Atlanta Braves, 4-3.

Looking back over the stadium's 30-year past, it is clear that Mr. Busch and others involved in the project accurately anticipated that the new stadium would spur a rebirth of downtown St. Louis. With Busch Stadium as the focal point, the redevelopment of the downtown area has been marked by the addition of new office buildings, hotels, shopping complexes, parking garages and other facilities, including the Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum.

Through the 1995 season, more than 58 million people have attended 2,293 games at Busch Stadium.

Recent improvements include the installation in 1993 of a state-of-the-art sound system and a new large-screen video display, a Diamond Vision MARK III High Contrast system by Mitsubishi Electronics. Prior to the 1995 season, a Plaza of Champions monument display honoring the Cardinals' World Championship teams was erected near the Stan Musial statue. The Stadium Club was totally renovated and included the addition of a sports theme bar.

Busch Stadium's basic structure is concrete. The stadium is basically a two-deck facility with about half its seats in each deck. The seats completely surround the field without posts or columns to obstruct fans' views. The nearly circular structure has an outside diameter of more than 800 feet and covers more than 12 acres.

The playing field at Busch Stadium is 10 to 30 feet lower than street level. Spectators move from the entrance level either up or down to seating areas. There are eight major entrances.

Field dimensions, from home plate: left-field line, 330 feet; left-center field, 372; center field, 402; right-center field, 375; right-field line, 330. Outfield walls are 8-feet high.

Busch Stadium capacity is 57,673 (including 1,500 standing-room customers).

BUSCH STADIUM CHANGES FOR 1996

Grass Returns to Busch Stadium – A natural grass playing surface returns to Busch Stadium for the first time since 1969.

Busch Stadium Family Pavilion – The Busch Stadium Family Pavilion will be located between Gates 7 and 8, adjacent to the Stan Musial statue and new Plaza of Champions, and consist of a variety of attractions inside and outside of Busch Stadium. The Family Pavilion will be open prior to, during and after all home games throughout the season, as well as for select special events during the year. All fans with a Cardinals ticket will be admitted to the Family Pavilion free of charge. There will be a nominal charge for select attractions. Planned interactive games and attractions include:

- Power Alley – Fans get a chance to step into a state-of-the-art batting cage and hit real baseballs thrown by life-size video images of popular major league pitchers.
- Pitcher's Dream – Pitchers can take the mound to test their speed and accuracy with the latest in radar speed pitch technology.
- Home Run Derby – Youngsters can take their cuts in T-ball batting cages.
- Fantasy Play-by-Play – Future broadcasters will get their chance to enter the broadcast booth and call great moments in Major League Baseball history and come away with a videotape of their experience.
- Sports Video Stations – The latest in computer sports video games will be geared to challenge rookies as well as big-leaguers.
- Amusematte – Visitors' images will be digitally inserted into a Major League Baseball scene or other unique setting and converted to a photograph.
- Cardinal "Bird" Tags – Watch as the "penny man" creates a custom keepsake out of a genuine U.S. penny. Visitors can wear the keepsake as Cardinal "bird" tags or collect the many unique variations.
- Cardinals Stage – Periodic appearances by players, coaches and other baseball celebrities. Also planned are clinics, demonstrations and entertainment.
- Family Pavilion Food Plaza – A place for fans to sit down and enjoy specialty food and beverages in a relaxing atmosphere.

Homer's Landing Picnic Area – A portion of the left field bleachers has been redesigned as a picnic area, complete with tables, concessions and a panoramic view of the action. Accessible to all fans entering Busch Stadium, the tiered picnic area will also offer a great view of the new Cardinals' bullpen, which will be relocated to the left field "wagon gate" area. Also, the picnic area will be available to groups for pre-game parties and functions.

Bullpens – The Cardinals won't be the only ones to move bullpens. The visitors' bullpen has also been relocated, behind the left field fence and foul pole, thus bringing the field box seats closer to the foul lines. The redesigned left field fence is screened and offers a view of both bullpens.

Corner Field Boxes – Field box seats in the left and right field corners have been redesigned to turn many seats toward home plate, bring fans considerably closer to the foul lines and ultimately improve the sightlines for everyone. The rows in the new sections will be installed at a steeper pitch than before, providing a much-improved view of the action.

Premium Seating – Three field-level front rows of Cardinal Club Box seats have been added behind home plate and three field-level front rows of Dugout Box seats have been added down the baselines. The new seats will reduce foul territory and create a greater sense of intimacy.

New Color – Busch Stadium will introduce a greener look beyond the playing field in 1996. The outfield fence and related stadium trimming has changed from the former blue scheme to a traditional ballpark green hue.

Children's Pricing – For children ages 15 and under, terrace reserved tickets are priced at $6 each and general admission tickets at $2 each for every game on the 1996 home schedule. Children's ticket prices, representing a $3.50 savings off the regular terrace reserved and general admission ticket price, are good for tickets sold in advance as well as on game day. No other discount options or coupons may be applied to tickets purchased at children's prices.

Ticket Prices – Ticket prices in 1996 remain the same as in 1994 and 1995 with the exception of Baseline Box seats, located between first and third base, which will increase by $2 to $16 each.

Dugout Box Seats – Dugout Box seats will be offered on a priority basis to current season ticket holders who have renewed for 1996. Dugout Box seats, at $25 each, will feature an intimate viewing location, private seating area, Stadium Club bar membership and

FARM AND SCOUTING DEPARTMENT

MIKE JORGENSEN
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Mike Jorgensen begins his fifth year as the Cardinals' Director of Player Development. Last year, Jorgy made his managerial debut following the dismissal of Joe Torre on June 16 and guided the Cards to a 41-55 mark. While managing the field operations, Mike also remained in his post as director of player development. Jorgensen returned to his player development post on a full-time basis following the conclusion of the 1995 season.

Mike was named director of player development on February 5, 1992, succeeding Ted Simmons, who joined the Pittsburgh Pirates as general manager. Jorgensen had been working as the Cardinals' minor league hitting instructor/coordinator since 1990 after managing the Louisville Redbirds from 1987 to 1989.

After retiring as a player following the 1985 season, Jorgy was immediately hired as an instructor in the Cardinals' minor league system. Midway through the 1986 season, he was named manager at St. Petersburg when Dave Bialas moved up to Louisville to replace Jim Fregosi, who had been hired to manage the Chicago White Sox. Jorgensen led St. Petersburg to an 88-48 finish, the best mark in the Florida State League.

Jorgensen was a lefthanded-hitting first baseman-outfielder during a major league career that spanned 18 seasons. He was signed by the New York Mets in the June 1966 free-agent draft and made his big-league debut in 1968, appearing in eight games. He was traded to Montreal in a multiplayer deal for Rusty Staub at the start of the 1972 season, his first of five full seasons with the Expos. He went on to play for Oakland (1977), Texas (1978-79), the Mets again (1980-83), Atlanta (1983-84) and the Cardinals (1984-85), arriving with pitcher Ken Dayley in a trade for third baseman Ken Oberkfell.

Jorgensen, born August 16, 1948, in Passaic, NJ, and his wife, the former Brenda Rice, have three children; Brian Michael (9-30-73), Kristen Leigh (7-7-75) and Eric James (4-7-81) and one grandchild; Eric (10-12-95). He graduated from Francis Lewis High School in Flushing, NY, and attended St. John's University. Jorgensen enjoys quail hunting, cooking and coaching basketball in his spare time.

MARTY MAIER
DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

Marty Maier was appointed director of scouting following the 1993 season. He had served as assistant scouting director since 1988.

The former minor league infielder joined the Cardinals as a scouting supervisor in 1980. He was responsible for scouting the southeast United States from 1980-83 and added Latin America to his territory in 1984.

Originally from Hollywood, FL, Maier graduated from South Broward High School in 1970. He attended Broward Junior College in Fort Lauderdale and Florida State University, graduating with a bachelor's degree in education. Marty and his wife, the former Diane Sherman, reside in Oakland, CA. He enjoys snow skiing, golf and fresh-water fishing in his spare time.

FRED McALISTER
EASTERN CROSSCHECKER

Fred McAlister was named the Cardinals' special assignment scout following the 1993 season after serving as the club's scouting director since 1980. As special assignment scout, he reports directly to General Manager Walt Jocketty.

McAlister has been part of the Cardinals' organization since 1945, when he signed as a player out of high school. He played in the Cardinals' farm system from 1945 to 1960, serving as a player/coach or player/manager at various times.

During his tenure as scouting director, McAlister's first-round picks reached the majors in nine of his 13 drafts, including a streak of picks from 1981 to 1987. Through 1993, McAlister's drafts produced 41 players who played for the Cardinals, as well as six players who reached the majors with other organizations.

McAlister also was the Cardinals' assistant farm director from 1967-69. He then served as a scouting supervisor and special assignment scout from 1969-1979.

McAlister, 68, resides in Clearwater, FL with his wife, Patti.

GEORGE KISSELL
SENIOR FIELD COORDINATOR FOR PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

As senior field coordinator for player development, George Kissell coordinates each of the Cardinals' minor league affiliates and reports to the Director of Player Development Mike Jorgensen. Because of his expertise in the fundamentals of the game, Kissell handles many of the instructional duties for the minor leagues during spring training and extended spring training.

Kissell spent 10 years in the minor leagues as an infielder and has served the Cardinals in several capacities since he joined the organization in 1940. From 1946 to 1968, he worked as a manager, coach, scout and minor league instructor. Kissell was a Cardinals' coach from 1969 to 1975 and a special field assistant to General Manager Bing Devine in 1976.

Kissell, a Watertown, NY, native, graduated with a master's degree from Ithaca (NY) College. He and his wife, Ginny, reside in St. Petersburg. The couple have a son, Dick, and a daughter, Kay.

GAYLEN PITTS
ASSISTANT MINOR LEAGUE FIELD COORDINATOR

Gaylen Pitts is entering his 16th season in the Cardinals' organization. He is entering his first year as minor league field coordinator after serving the past five seasons as a coach at the major league level. He was the Cardinals' bullpen coach from 1991 to 1994 and was the Cardinals' third base coach in 1995.

Pitts has managed at Arkansas (1981-82, 89), Savannah (1985), Springfield (1986-87), Johnson City (1988) and Louisville (1990), where he also coached in 1983-84. He managed the Oakland A's Modesto club in 1978-79. Pitts was named Texas League Manager of the Year in 1989, when he led Arkansas to the league championship. He also guided Springfield to back-to-back division titles in 1986 and 1987.

Pitts was signed by the Cardinals in 1964 out of Mountain Home High School in Arkansas, where he lettered in baseball and football. He was an infielder in the Cardinals' system until 1971. Pitts played 28 games at the major league level with Oakland in 1974-75.

Pitts, 49, resides in Columbia, IL, with his wife Julia, and son, Travis Ray (8-8-87). In his spare time, he enjoys trout fishing, snow and water-skiing, and racquetball.

MARK RIGGINS
MINOR LEAGUE PITCHING COORDINATOR

Mark is entering his first season as the organization's minor league pitching coordinator and his 13th season in the organization. Last year he served as the Cardinals' pitching coach under Joe Torre and Mike Jorgensen and he was the pitching coach at Louisville from 1990 to 1994.

The 39-year-old Riggins began his coaching career in 1984 with Johnson City, moved to St. Petersburg in 1985, to Arkansas in 1986, to Springfield in 1987 and back to St. Petersburg in 1988. He spent the 1989 season as the Cardinals' roving minor league pitching instructor before joining Louisville in 1990.

Riggins pitched in the Cardinals' system for five seasons with Gastonia, St. Petersburg, Arkansas and Louisville. He also played on loan for Baltimore's Charlotte club for part of the 1983 season.

Riggins is a graduate of Loogootee High School in Indiana and earned a bachelor's degree in agricultural business in 1979 from Murray State University, where he was a three year all-conference pitcher. He makes his off-season home in Murray, KY, with wife Tammie, and daughter, Chelsea Lee.

JOHNNY LEWIS
MINOR LEAGUE HITTING COORDINATOR

Lewis returns to his role as minor league hitting instructor following a year as a coach with St. Petersburg. From 1990 to 1994 he also served as the hitting instructor for the Cardinals' farm system. In addition, he was an instructor in the St. Louis system from 1982-1984 and managed for five years before that at Calgary (1977-78), Gastonia (1979) and Johnson City (1980-81).

Lewis, signed as an outfielder by St. Louis in 1959, broke into the majors with the Cardinals in 1964. He spent the next three years with the New York Mets, striking one of the 1965 season's most memorable blows by hitting a 10th-inning homer to break up a no-hitter by the Cincinnati Reds' Jim Maloney. Lewis retired as a player after the 1968 season.

Lewis worked in the Cardinals' front office as assistant promotions and sales director for two years and was a farm system administrative assistant in 1972. He joined the Cardinals' coaching staff in March 1973 and remained for four years.

Lewis, 56, was born in Greenville, AL, and lives in Cantoment, FL, where he sells real estate during the off-season.

MINOR LEAGUE MANAGERS

JOE PETTINI
LOUISVILLE

Pettini begins his third year as the Louisville manager after guiding the Redbirds to a 74-70 record last season and their first American Association Championship since 1985. Pettini has managed seven seasons in the Cardinals' minor league system, posting a career record of 415-485.

The 41-year-old Pettini began his managerial career in 1989 with the Cardinals' Hamilton, Ontario, club. He had stops at St. Petersburg in 1990 (60-74) and at Arkansas for the 1991-93 season (175-229).

Pettini's playing career began in 1977, when he was signed by the Montreal Expos as a non-drafted free agent. In 1980, he was traded to the San Francisco Giants, where he played for four seasons. He was signed by Louisville in 1984 and played with the Redbirds for three seasons.

Pettini was born on January 26, 1955, in Wheeling, WV. He graduated from Brooke High School in Wellsburg, WV, in 1973. Pettini received a bachelor's degree in education from Mercer University in Macon, GA. He married the former Barbara Sperlazza on November 11, 1981. The couple have two children: Amy Michele (2-17-83) and Joseph James (6-15-87). Pettini enjoys bass fishing, hunting and golfing.

RICK MAHLER
ARKANSAS

Mahler begins his fifth season in the Cardinals' organization and first as a manager. From 1992 to 1995 he was an instructor for Cardinals' minor league pitchers after completing a major league career that spanned 11 seasons with Atlanta and Cincinnati.

Mahler signed with the Braves as a non-drafted free agent in 1975 after playing collegiate ball at Trinity University (San Antonio, TX). After brief appearances with Atlanta in 1979 (he collected a hit in his first at-bat) and 1980, Mahler fashioned a 2.81 ERA as a starter-reliever during the 1981 season. His best major league season came in 1985, when he started the season with seven consecutive wins en route to 17 victories and a 3.48 ERA. In 1988, he ranked second in the N.L. with a ratio of 1.5 walks per nine innings pitched.

Mahler signed with Cincinnati in December 1988 and pitched in the Reds' system through the 1990 season. He ended his career in 1991, splitting the season in the Montreal and Atlanta farm systems.

The 42-year-old Mahler and his wife, Sheryl, live in Marietta, GA, with their sons Ricky, Robby, Timothy and Tyler.

CHRIS MALONEY
ST. PETERSBURG

Maloney is entering his sixth season as a manager and his second at St. Petersburg. He is coming off a 64-67 season.

In 1993, Maloney guided the Savannah Cardinals to a 94-48 record and the South Atlantic League championship-a feat that warranted his selection by USA Today's Baseball Weekly as its 1993 Manager of the Year. The year before, his .737 winning percentage (56-20) at Hamilton was the highest ever posted by a Cardinals' farm team. Overall, Maloney has a career managerial record of 322-228 (.585). Prior to taking his first managerial job at Johnson City in 1991, Maloney coached at Springfield in 1988, at Arkansas in 1989 and at Johnson City in 1990.

Maloney was signed as a non-drafted free agent by the New York Mets in June 1983. The outfielder-first baseman was purchased by the Cardinals in 1986 and played for Springfield.

Maloney graduated in 1979 from St. Joseph High School in Jackson, MS, and from Mississippi State University in 1983. He likes bass fishing, deer and duck hunting, and golfing. Maloney is involved with the Multiple Sclerosis Society and lives in Jackson during the off-season.

ROY SILVER
PEORIA

Silver enters his fourth season as a manager in the Cardinals' organization and his second as Peoria's skipper. He guided the chiefs to a 62-72 record last year. In 1994, he led New Jersey to a 43-32 record and the New York-Penn League championship. In 1993, he guided Chandler to a 31-22 record and earned Manager of the Year honors in the Arizona League. Silver has a career managerial record of 136-126 (.519). He coached at Springfield in 1992 after an eight-year playing career in the Cardinals' farm system.

The 33-year-old Silver was signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Cardinals in July 1984. A catcher-outfielder, he played at Johnson City, Savannah, St. Petersburg, Arkansas and Louisville.

Silver was born on September 22, 1962, in New York City. He graduated from Half Hollow Hills East High School on Long Island in 1980. He attended Eckerd College in Florida from 1980 to 1984 and was named to the Sunshine State All-Conference team. During the off-season, Silver lives in St. Petersburg, FL, with his wife, Dana, and daughter.

SCOTT MELVIN
NEW JERSEY CARDINALS

Melvin is beginning his third year as a manager in the Cardinals' organization and his first at New Jersey. In 1994, he led Chandler to a 34-22 first-place finish in the Arizona League and earned Manager of the Year honors. He served as a coach at Hamilton in 1992 and at Springfield in 1993. He was the skipper of the Savannah Cardinals in 1995.

The 32-year-old Melvin had a seven-year minor league career as an infielder. Signed originally by the Salt Lake City Trappers in 1985, he played for the Kinston Indians in 1986 before signing with the Cardinals in April 1987. Melvin's five seasons in the Cardinals' system included stops at Springfield, St. Petersburg and Arkansas. In 1988, he was named to the Florida State League all-star team.

Melvin was born on September 3, 1963, in Quincy, IL, where he graduated from high school. He earned a degree in criminal justice in 1985 from Bradley University and received NCAA All-Midwest honors for two years. Melvin still lives in Quincy.

STEVE TURCO
JOHNSON CITY

Turco begins his fifth season of managing in the Cardinals' organization and his third year at Johnson City. Last season, he led Johnson City to a 35-33 record and in 1994, he guided the team to a 42-26 record and an Appalachian League playoff berth. He is 147-131 in four seasons as a manager.

The 37-year-old Turco also has three years' coaching experience to his credit, starting as a coach at Springfield in 1985 before moving to Savannah in 1986. After a four-year stint as a high school baseball coach, he returned to the professional level in 1991 to coach at Hamilton.

Turco was signed by the Cardinals in 1978 as an infielder and played in the farm system from 1979 to 1984.

Turco graduated from Cooper City High School in Florida in 1975. He earned a physical education degree from Florida State University in 1979. He resides in Largo, FL.

MINOR LEAGUE COACHES

DYAR MILLER
LOUISVILLE

Miller is entering his second season as Louisville's pitching coach after returning last season for his second stint in the Cardinals' organization.

Miller previously coached in the Cardinals' system at Arkansas (1985) and Louisville (1986). He was bullpen coach for the Chicago White Sox in 1987 and pitching and bullpen coach for the Sox in 1988. He coached in the Detroit system (1989-90) before serving as a pitching coach in the Cleveland Indians' organization from 1991 to 1994.

The 49-year-old Miller, a former pitcher, was originally signed by Philadelphia. He spent seven years in the majors, pitching for Baltimore (1975-77), California (1977-79), Toronto (1979) and the New York Mets (1980-81).

Miller was born May 29, 1946, in Batesville, IN. He graduated from New Point High School, where he participated in baseball, basketball and track. He earned a B.S. degree in 1968 from Utah State, where he played baseball and basketball. He and his wife, the former Bertha Jo Williams, have four children: Scott, Matthew, Christopher and Sara Mae. They reside in Batesville. Miller, a teacher during the off-season, enjoys golf, hiking, and fishing.

LUIS MELENDEZ
LOUISVILLE

Melendez begins his first season as a coach at Louisville. Last season, his first as manager at New Jersey, he led the team to 35-41 record. In 1994, he guided Savannah to an 82-55 record and the South Atlantic League championship. He served as a roving instructor for the minor leagues from 1991 to 1993 after managing at Hamilton in 1990 and Peoria in 1989. In his managerial career, Melendez has a 171-173 record. He also coached at Hamilton in 1988, his first season on the club's minor league staff.

The former outfielder, signed by St. Louis in 1968, saw action in eight major league seasons with the Cardinals and Padres. He enjoyed his best year in 1973, establishing career highs in games (121), runs (35), hits (91), doubles (18) and RBI (35).

Melendez, born August 11, 1949, in Aibonito, Puerto Rico, still makes his off-season home there.

MARTY MASON
ARKANSAS

Mason begins his seventh season at Arkansas and his 11th as a coach in the Cardinals' organization.

The 38-year-old Mason's coaching career began in 1986 at St. Petersburg, where he spent two seasons. He coached at Savannah in 1988, returned to St. Petersburg in 1989, then moved to Arkansas in 1990.

Mason originally was signed by the New York Yankees in 1980. He was acquired by the Cardinals in December 1982 after playing on loan that season for the club's Springfield affiliate. Mason also appeared with Arkansas and St. Petersburg. He retired after four games as a player-coach at St. Petersburg in 1986.

Mason was born April 4, 1958, in Central City, KY. He attended Central Alabama Academy from 1975 to 1976 and Western Kentucky University from 1977 to 1980. He married the former Lynn Bradford on February 22, 1986. The couple have one child: Brandy Leigh (8-17-88). Mason enjoys bass fishing and is a small-engine mechanic in his spare time.

JEFF SHIREMAN
ARKANSAS

Shireman is entering his second season as a coach in the Cardinals' organization following a seven-year minor league playing career in the system.

The 29-year-old Shireman was drafted by the Cardinals in June 1988. An infielder, he had stops at Johnson City, Springfield, St. Petersburg, Arkansas and Louisville. Shireman attended Georgia Southern, where he earned All-Conference honors in 1987 and 1988, and was named Conference Player of the Year in 1988.

Shireman was born March 3, 1966 at Ames, Iowa. He graduated from Bucholz High School, where he earned all-state honors in 1984 and all-district recognition from 1981 to 1983. He makes his off-season home in Little Rock, AR.

RICH FOLKERS
ST. PETERSBURG

Folkers is entering his fourth season as St. Petersburg's pitching coach. Prior to rejoining the Cardinals, the Tampa Bay resident spent five seasons as an assistant coach at Eckerd College.

The 49-year-old Folkers had a seven-year major league career with the Mets, Cardinals, Padres and Brewers. He posted a career 19-23 record and a 4.12 ERA. His best season came in 1974, when he was 6-2 with two saves and a 3.00 ERA for the Cardinals.

RAY SEARAGE
PEORIA

Searage enters his third season as the pitching coach for the Cardinals' Midwest League entry, which moved from Madison to Peoria last year. He joined the Cardinal's organization in 1994.

Searage had a nine-year major league career with the Mets, Brewers, White Sox and Dodgers. He was originally drafted by the Cardinals in 1976.

The 40-year-old Searage attended West Liberty (WV) State College. He and his wife, the former Vicki Allen, and their three children reside in St. Petersburg, FL.

MINOR LEAGUE INSTRUCTORS

JOE CUNNINGHAM
MINOR LEAGUE INSTRUCTOR

Cunningham enters his first season as the Cardinals' minor league instructor after serving as a coach for Louisville last year. As a manager in 1994, he led Madison to a 66-73 record and guided Johnson City to a 37-31 mark in 1993, when he was named Appalachian League Manager of the Year. In 1992, he guided Chandler to a 28-28 record in his managerial debut.

Cunningham previously coached at Hamilton in 1989 and at Johnson City in 1990 and 1991.

The 33-year-old Cunningham, son of former Cardinals' All-Star outfielder and long-time front office employee Joe Cunningham, Jr., played in the Cardinals' organization from 1984 to 1988 with Johnson City, Savannah, St. Petersburg and Springfield.

Cunningham was born on January 16, 1963, in St. Louis, where he graduated from Parkway Central High School in 1981. He attended Gulf Coast Community college in Panama City, Florida. Off the field, Cunningham enjoys hunting and fishing.

HUB KITTLE
MINOR LEAGUE PITCHING INSTRUCTOR

Kittle returns to his role as minor league pitching instructor this year after spending last season as the pitching coach for New Jersey. Prior to his stint at New Jersey, Kittle served for 11 seasons as a pitching instructor in the Cardinals' minor league system. He returned to that role in 1984 after serving as the Cardinals' pitching coach for three seasons.

The 79-year-old Kittle also managed at St. Petersburg (1977) in the middle of his first stint as minor league pitching instructor (1976 and 1978-80).

Among other distinctions, Kittle has pitched professionally in six decades, capping it with a one-inning stint at Springfield late in the 1980 season. (He retired the side 1-2-3.)

Kittle started pitching professionally in 1936 but never reached the major leagues. He became a minor league manager in 1948, his first of 19 seasons as a farm club manager. From 1960 to 1963, he was a general manager at Yakima, Honolulu and Portland, OR. At Yakima in 1960, he was named Minor League Executive of the Year by The Sporting News. He joined the Houston organization as a minor league manager in 1968 and served on the Astros' coaching staff from 1971 to 1975.

Kittle makes his home in Yakima, WA, and is the father of seven children (four sons and three daughters).

BOB MILLIKEN
MINOR LEAGUE PITCHING INSTRUCTOR

Bob Milliken resumes his role as minor league pitching instructor after serving last year as the pitching coach at Johnson City. Prior to last season, "Bo" spent the previous 18 seasons in his current role. He also served as the organization's pitching instructor from 1971-75, the Cardinals' pitching coach in 1976, and their bullpen coach from 1965-70. He pitched batting practice for the Cardinals in 1963 and 1964.

Milliken's 15-year playing career was spent mostly in the Dodgers' organization (1947-59). He was 8-4 as a long reliever and spot-starter for the Dodgers' 1953 pennant-winning team and pitched against the Yankees in the Wold Series. He joined the Cardinal organization in 1960 and pitched for the farm teams at Memphis, Atlanta and Charleston.

Milliken, born August 25, 1926, in Majorsville, WV, married the former Martha Knight (10-24-53). The couple have two children: Brian Knight (1-13-58) and Beth Lynn (3-16-60). Milliken enjoys bass fishing, deer hunting and country music.

DAVE RICKETTS
MINOR LEAGUE CATCHING INSTRUCTOR

Ricketts is entering his 23rd year as an instructor with the organization and returns to his role as catching instructor. Last season he served as the pitching coach at Savannah.

The 60-year-old Ricketts originally signed with the Cardinals in 1957. He was a backup catcher and pinch-hitter with the Cardinals from 1967 to 1969 and appeared in the 1967 and 1968 World Series. He spent his last season as a player with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1970.

Ricketts began his coaching career with the Pirates, serving as their bullpen coach from 1971 to 1973. He joined the Cardinals as a major league coach in 1974. In 1976, he was named manager at Sarasota, where he guided the team to a third-place finish. He managed at Johnson City in 1977 before returning to the majors as a coach form 1978 to 1991.

Ricketts was born in Pottstown, PA. He earned a bachelor's of arts degree from Duquesne University, where he starred in basketball along with his brother, Dick, a former Cardinals pitcher. Ricketts lives in St. Louis with his wife, Barbara. The couple have one daughter, Candy.

ST. LOUIS CARDINALS
MEDIA RELATIONS OFFICE

250 Stadium Plaza
St. Louis, MO 63102
Office: (314) 425-0626
Fax: (314) 982-7399

Brian Bartow — Director
Mary Ford — Assistant
Shawn Bertani — Assistant
Dave Fanucchi — Intern

CREDENTIALS — Credentials will be issued only to legitimate news-gathering agencies. Season credentials will be issued only to those agencies that cover the Cardinals on a daily basis. Season credentials will be laminated and must be worn in a visible manner at all times. All requests for credentials should be made in writing to the Cardinals Media Relations Office. Deadlines for credentials are as follows: Season – March 4; Daily – two working days prior to the game requested. All agencies must have a letter on file to have credentials issued via telephone. Credentials are issued to working members of the press only. No spouses, guests or children of press members will be issued passes, and credentials are not transferable. Credentialed media also are prohibited from requesting autographs on the field. Any violations will result in immediate revocation of the credential. All game credentials will be available at the Press Will Call window located between Gates 4 and 5 on the west side of the stadium. A photo identification is required.

ADMISSION — The media entrance is through the ticket office lobby, located at street level on the west side of the stadium.

PRESS BOX — Take the elevators from the lobby to level 5. All persons entering the press box must sign in. The press box and broadcast booths are both located on level 5. The press box is for working members of the media only.

MEDIA DINING — Located inside the press box. It is open for meal service 1-1/2 hours prior to game time to accredited members of the media. The room is open for approximately 90 minutes after the game for beverage service. There is a $5.00 charge for meal service.

CLUBHOUSES — Both the Cardinals' and visitors' clubhouses are located on level 1. Access the clubhouses by taking the elevator to level 1 and then walking to the clubhouses. All working media with clubhouse credentials will be admitted 3-1/2 hours prior to game time until one hour before first pitch. After the game, media who were issued clubhouse credentials will be admitted no longer than ten minutes following the game's conclusion. At times, certain restrictions may be imposed for meetings, cooling-off periods, etc.

FIELD — All non-uniformed personnel must leave the field 30 minutes prior to first pitch. No person is allowed on the field unless that individual has credentials expressly for field privileges (i.e., photo pass).

NOTES — Game notes and statistics are available in the press box two hours prior to game time. Play-by-play sheets and box scores will be available after each game.

MEDIA GUIDES — Media guides are available by request in the press box from club media relations representatives.

TELEPHONES — Five credit-card-only telephones are available for media use in the main press area. Two pay phones are also available in the press box.

TICKETS — All requests for media complimentary tickets must be made to the Cardinals Media Relations Office by 2 p.m. for games beginning at 7:05 p.m. Requests for weekend games must be made by 5 p.m. on Friday to be filled. Tickets can be picked up at the Press Will Call windows between Gates 4 and 5 on the west side of the stadium 90 minutes prior to the game. Photo identification is required.

CARDINALS BROADCASTING — 1996

RADIO

KMOX-Radio, St. Louis, is the flagship station for a network of approximately 135 stations covering 11 states. It will broadcast all 1996 games with commentary by Jack Buck, Mike Shannon and Joe Buck.

TELEVISION

KPLR-TV (Channel 11), St. Louis, will televise locally and to a network of approximately 35 stations covering seven states. The Prime Network, a regional cable station, also will televise 43 games. Commentary will be provided by Joe Buck, Bob Carpenter and Al Hrabosky.

CARDINALS BROADCASTERS

JACK BUCK

Jack Buck has kept baseball fans spellbound with his diction and quick wit since he joined the Cardinals' broadcasting team in 1954. Buck was paid the ultimate compliment for his skills in 1987, when he was inducted into the broadcasters wing of the Baseball Hall of Fame as the Ford C. Frick Award recipient. Buck was inducted into the Broadcaster's Hall of Fame in 1990. He was inducted into the Radio Hall of Fame in 1995.

A native of Holyoke, Mass., Buck received a bachelor's of arts degree from Ohio State. He got his start in baseball as the play-by-play announcer for St. Louis' minor league clubs at Columbus and Rochester. Now KMOX-Radio's sports director, Buck has at one time or another broadcast almost every type of sports event imaginable. He has received widespread acclaim for his work as the voice of the National Football League and had the distinction of handling the first telecast of the old American Football League.

MIKE SHANNON

Mike Shannon enters his 25th season in the Cardinals' broadcast booth. His nine years as a Cardinal player and one year in the front office give Shannon a unique insight that comes to the fore in his commentary and color, which are only heightened by his zeal for the game.

The 56-year-old St. Louis native broke into the big leagues in 1962 and went on to star for the Redbirds' World Series champion teams in 1964 and 1967 and their N.L. pennant winner in 1968.

The former outfielder-third baseman joined the Cardinals' front office in 1971 as assistant director of promotions and sales. His career was cut short in 1970 by nephritis, a rare kidney disease.

JOE BUCK

After spending two seasons as the play-by-play voice of the Louisville Redbirds, Joe Buck joined the Cardinals' radio team in 1991.

Buck, 26, also has handled the play-by-play on Cardinals television broadcasts for both KPLR and Prime. He added the National Football League to his television duties in 1994 as an announcer on the Fox Network. This year, Joe joins Fox's baseball announcing team. Buck also has broadcast Missouri Tigers basketball games and in 1989 helped ESPN cover the Triple-A All-Star game.

A graduate of Country Day High School in St. Louis, Buck studied communications and English at Indiana University. He married the former Ann Archambault in January 1993.

CARDINALS BROADCASTERS

AL HRABOSKY

Al Hrabosky has made a smooth transition from one of St. Louis' best-loved athletes, the "Mad Hungarian" of the Cardinals' 1970s bullpen, to one of the town's favorite broadcasters. His expert commentary and sharp wit are a staple of Cardinals telecasts on KPLR and Prime.

Hrabosky's fast rise in broadcasting came as no surprise. During a 13-year major league career in which he compiled 97 saves and earned Fireman of the Year honors in 1975, Hrabosky already was preparing himself for broadcasting by working as a sportscaster for a St. Louis TV station.

BOB CARPENTER

After broadcasting his first major league game in 1984 on the Cardinals' old Sportstime cable network, Carpenter returned to his St. Louis roots in 1995 after stops in the broadcast booths of the Texas Rangers, New York Mets and Minnesota Twins. Carpenter serves as the play-by-play voice on Prime and KPLR telecasts.

Carpenter also is remembered locally for broadcasting St. Louis Steamers indoor-soccer games from 1983-86, but more recently he has been one of the busiest announcers on the national level. On the USA Network, he has hosted the U.S. Open tennis championship and The Masters golf tournament. On ESPN, he has announced college football and basketball games, World Cup soccer and hosted Hall of Fame induction ceremonies.

The St. Louis native is a 1971 graduate of McBride High School and earned a degree in broadcasting from UMKC. He and his wife, Debbie, have two daughters.

QUALIFICATIONS AND REGULATIONS

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A BATTING CHAMPION:
Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A PITCHING CHAMPION:
Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

PLAYER LIMITS:
40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again may become 40.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A SAVE:
A relief pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:
1. He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
2. He is not the winning pitcher, and
3. He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
   a. He enters the game with lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
   b. He enters the game with potential tying run either on base, at-bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
   c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE:
Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING AN EARNED-RUN-AVERAGE:
Multiply the number of earned runs by nine; take the number and divide it by the number of innings pitched.

TRADING REGULATIONS:
Trades may be made with any other major league club in the period from the end of the championship season through July 31 without waivers. Waivers are required, however:
1. If the assignment is to another major league club: From August 1 to the end of the season.
2. If assignment is to a minor league club, with right of recall, at any time after 3 years from the date the player first reported to a major league club during a championship season.
3. If assigned to a minor league club without right of recall, after acquiring 3 years service: At any time during the year.
4. If assigned to a minor league club, without right of recall, at any time prior to acquiring three years of service, special waivers are required between September 1 and the opening of the following season. If player is claimed, request may be withdrawn. If no claims are made, club has 7-day period in which to make assignment to minor leagues.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A "ROOKIE":
A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER:
Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the lost column of the standings from the closest opponent.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP:
Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAK:
A consecutive-game hittiing streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK:
A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

RULES OF INTEREST

DOCTORED BAT: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be called out and ejected from the game and is subject to additional penalties. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

GAME WINNING RBI: The RBI which gives a club the lead it never relinquishes.

NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 5 P.M. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5 P.M. and is delayed for any reason it will be considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5:01 P.M. it will be considered a night game. Twinight double-headers shall be considered two night games.

PINCH-HITTERS: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around and a pinch-hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch-hitter during that second time up.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game.

A game terminated by curfew or by a prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed to be an official game (4 1/2 or 5 innings).

A game terminated by light failure or malfunction of mechanical field device under control of the home club is a suspended game anytime after it begins.

Rule 4.11 (d)...A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play: EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a suspended game in each of the following situations:

(1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.

(2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled, single game between the two clubs at the same site.

Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

WAIVER AND DRAFT PRICES: The waiver price is $20,000 and the Major League Draft price is $50,000.

YEARS OF SERVICE: 172 days constitute a full major league year of service.

AMATEUR DRAFT
FREE-AGENCY DRAFT SUMMARY

Major League and National Association clubs meet once a year for the purpose of drafting free-agent player talent. Meetings are conducted by conference phone. Selection of a free agent entitles the club to exclusive right of negotiation with that player from the date of selection until 10 days prior to next draft. Clubs choose in inverse order of major league standings, selecting free agents and previous draftees who had not signed contracts but had instead enrolled in four-year colleges and since had either completed their junior year or turned 21 years old. Each organization may select only one player for each of its major league, AAA or AA rosters, but is not limited to the number of picks for "A" level. Minor league clubs select in the same relative order as their parent clubs.
